Colder Weather Moves In

Disaster Areas, With High Winds Churning Up Ground Snow and Hampering Rescues

By The Associated Press

New wind gusts swooped into the South Dakota-Nebraska - Wyoming disaster area Saturday, churning up ground snow and hampering rescue work.

Visibility dropped to zero at Rapid City, S. D., as north wind velocity reached 41 miles per hour. At Chadron, Neb., gusts of 30 miles per hour were reported in mid-afternoon, blowing snow which sifted into freshly cut roadways. A 40-mile wind hit Sinclair, Wyo., and visibility was cut by snow to one half mile.

Colder weather was moving into the area with the winds, sharpening the already bitter temperatures. To the north, the Saturday daytime readings did not go above four below at Grand Forks, N. D., and two below at Bismarck, N. D.

Elsewhere It was Mild

Elsewhere, the nation's weather was comparatively mild in the Ohio valley and the east, rainy along the gulf—except Florida which had warm, somewhat humid conditions—and chilly on the west coast.

Winds diminished in the Nevada Utah area where light new snow fell. The air force haylift continued operations in this area where its C-82 flying boxcars have scattered more than 817 tons of hay to sheep and cattle herds over 300,000 square miles.

The new winds which hurdled the Rockies were part of the storm which whistled in on the west coast Friday, blowing a blizzard into Donner Pass in the California Sierras and blocking U. S. Highway 40.

An estimated several thousand motorists and winter sports fans were stranded on the highway, but snowplows finally cleared the road after 12 hours work.

Railroad Workmen Killed

The bodies of three railroad workmen were recovered Saturday from beneath tons of snow and debris that swept down a steep Utah mountain last night. The avalanche buried the Union Pacific's north-south mainline between Pocatello, Idaho, and Salt Lake City, halting traffic for several hours.

Shortly before the new weather hardship hit the snowbound plains expanse, the Fifth Army reported that its drift-fighting operation had reached 25,131 persons, 550,740 cattle and 95,440 other farm animals during the first week. There are an estimated 3,791,000 cattle in the tri-state emergency area, and livestock losses were estimated to range from two to nine per cent there.

Though some packing has taken plale, snow depths ranged from 12 to 16 inches, with drifts of several feet piled near every hummock, fence, tree and building.

California Cool

Elsewhere in the mid-continent, there was light snow in Montana, Iowa, and Minnesota, and temperatures rose slowly over Texas, Arkansas, and Oklahoma. It was warming along the gulf coast, too, with mercury ranging during the day from the low 50s in Louisiana to 65 at Jacksonville, Fla. Miami's temperature in mid-afternoon reached 84 with humidity a shade over 50.

From the Ohio valley eastward, temperatures rose above freezing, and Boston, Mass., reported a 32. It was colder in Maine, 15 to 18 above zero.

Southern California remained cooler than normal and there was some cloudiness there. Los Angeles had an afternoon reading of 54. In the far northwest, some snow continued up the Puget Sound area where Seattle had flurries.

City Streets Slick Saturday Night

All vehicular traffic verily crept along, and pedestrians cautiously watched their step while walking and driving upon the city streets Saturday night

Pavements and sidewalks quickly became slick and glazed after much slushy water of the day formed into ice as soon as the sun disappeared in the evening.

Saturday was perhaps the slickest street and sidewalk night this year, but from indications, people must be getting to be experts on walking, and driving their automobiles.

Only one accident was reported at the police station, and that was neglible. A car slid into another and dented a fender

Volcano Erupts After Ninty-Six Years

TOKYO, Feb. 5.—(AP)—Yake Yama, a volcano that had been quiet for 96 years, erupted violently this morning, scattering ashes for 100 miles.

The 7,900-foot volcano, whose name means "burning mountain," is in west-central Japan about 150 miles northwest of Tokyo.

No damage or casualties had been reported from the isolated region.

Not Going to Let GOP Run Senate

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5—(AP)—A Republican move to force quick action next week on a filibuster-killing change in Senate rules will be slapped down by the Democrats.

The Senate Democratic caucus today pledged, on a show of hands, its unanimous opposition to a motion by Senator Knowland (R-Calif) which comes up automatically in the Senate Monday.

The Democrats decided, Senator McClelland (D-Ark) said, "that they are not going to let the Republicans run the Senate."

Drop in Prices Begun Earlier Is Continuing

Stocks in New York Fell From Few Cents to $3.00

CHICAGO, Feb. 5—(AP)—Prices of stocks, cotton, lard and some other commodities tumbled again today, continuing a trend which started earlier in the week.

Stocks in New York fell again in the sharpest loss since the day after the presidential election. Declines ran from a few cents to more than $3, in the wake of extreme losses of $5 yesterday. Many issues hit new lows for the past year or for longer periods.

On Friday $800,000,000 (M) was chopped off the market value of all shares. Today an additional $1,200,000,000 (B) was lopped off.

Action of stocks nailed down a general decline which began in such basic commodities as grain, livestock, butter, eggs and cotton. It is a decline which has been going on for several months, but which picked up momentum in the present week.

Repetitious Appearance

Drops in commodity prices had a repetitious appearance, for it was just one year ago this week that the big post-war break hit grains and spread to other commodities.

The one big difference from last year was that this time the price slump came from levels which, to begin with, were lower than in 1948. Nor were the declines as sharp as last year.

Also, last year prices were far above the points at which the government was pledged to step in and support the market. This year prices of some commodities, particularly grains, had slipped through that support level as if it didn't exist.

Reassuring Farmers

And, as one grain trader expressed it today, there was some feeling that in trying to support prices at higher levels than ever before "the government may have bitten off more than it can chew."

Some re-assuring words for farmers came from Secretary of Agriculture Brannan on Thursday, when he said, "I don't really think this is the beginning of any drastic downward trend." At the week end Dr. Edwin G. Nourse, chairman of the President Economic Council, said, "these months are very decisive months and anyone who has responsibility is watching things closely."

35th Division to Put on Show

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Feb. 5—(AP)—The 35th division again will be on the loose in Little Rock.

Members of the Missouri-Kansas-Nebraska National Guard outfit will put on a three-day show here June 10-12 in honor of one of the division's former officer, President Harry Truman.

The President who served as a field artillery battery commander with the division during World War one is scheduled to attend the three-day reunion.

Woman Burns to Death

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 5.—(AP)—Mrs. Blanche Malvicine, 65, whose flat caught fire three times in the past 18 months, was found burned to death today.

Firemen said her clothes and blankets on the bed had burned. Neighbors called firemen when they heard Mrs. Malvicine scream and smelled smoke.

Demand Death Of Cardinal Mindszenty

Verdict Will Be Announced Tuesday Morning

By Endre Marton

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Feb. 5.—(AP)—Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty, aware the prosecution has demanded his death, asked tonight that God grant guidance to his judges so their verdict will help promote peace between church and state.

He also besought the love of the Roman Catholic church for the communist-dominated Hungarian state which is trying him on treason charges.

"May the Lord give wisdom to the court, when they pass their sentence which may help a settlement at home and abroad," the slender Roman Catholic primate said in his final plea.

Earlier Prosecutor Gyula Elapi called for a verdict "hard and inexorable"—death on the gallows—for Cardinal Mindzenty and his six co-defendents. Defense pleas were entered for "leniency, and a wise decision." In addition to treason, all are accused of espionage and illegal money dealings.

Adjourned Until Tuesday

Presiding Judge Vilmos Olthys adjourned the trial tonight until 9:30 a. m. (E-A.M., EST) Tuesday when the verdicts will be announced.

Cardinal Mindszenty made a 15-minute appeal to the court.

He said he had been held more than 40 days by the police and the court.

"They ask me (questions) and I answer," he said.

"The questions and the answers are not only for those who question me, but in the meantime the man also gives an answer for his own soul. From these answers which I give myself, I can draw the conclusion that I did not lose my good will in the course of my life and I am thankful for that to my God."

Regretted Conflict

The Cardinal said again he regretted past conflict with Hungarian laws.

"I state that, according to my belief, I am not and I have never been the enemy of the Hungarian people," he said. "I have no controversies with the workers and the peasants, to whom I and my family belong.

"I have no intention of taking away any rights from any category. But after the tragedy of the world war a most difficult historical role was waiting for me and it would have been my task to be the announcer of the light of the evangelism."

Referring to Hungraian land law revision of 1945, the Cardinal pointed out the bench of Hungarian bishops blessed the peasants given property from large estates and had said repeatedly the Catholic church would never ask for return of confiscated acres.

No Enemy of Peace

"I am thankful to my God that, according to my severe conscience, I am not an enemy of peace," the Cardinal said. "I had never been against peace. I only pointed out emphatically certain preliminary conditions in the interest of a long and lasting (church-state) peace."

Kansas Wants Air Academy

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 5—(AP)—Sen. Schoeppel, (R-Kas.) said today he is going to do "everything I can" to get Uncle Sam to put the new Air Academy in Kansas.

"Wichita, Salina, Hutchinson, Topeka and Kansas City, Kas., all will be interested in getting the academy if possible," he told a reporter.

He added, Wichita has long been known as the "Air Capital."

Sen. Kem, (R.-Mo.) and Representative Christopher, (D.-Mo.) both have introduced bills to have the Air Academy located in Sedalia.

Rep. Kilday, (D-Texas) is urging that it be established at Randolph Field, Texas.

Other congressmen also are seeking to have it established in their states.

Topeka Pathologist Speaker At Rotary Luncheon-Meeting

Dr. J. L. Lattimore, pathologist, of Topeka, Kas., will be the speaker at Rotary Club Monday noon at the Bothwell hotel.

Dr. Lattimore is a former president of the Kansas Medical Society and a former president of the American Society of Clinical Pathologists. He is at present a member of the Kansas legislature and owner of the Lattimore Laboratories at the Bothwell hospital in Sedalia. He will talk on "Medicine and Legal Medicine" dealing with the crime detector and its application to medicine and the laboratory. Dr. Lattimore's talk will cover certain signs and symptons that the layman can help with, the use of the lie detector, certain blood tests and various other things.

He will urge a broader use of autopsy in correct determining of the cause of death He has had 30 years' experience in this type of work and has performed more than 7,000 autopsies.

Newsman Surprised To Find Companion Knows of Sedalia

It is a small world, as Sedalians learn every day. Friday D. Kelly Scruton, of the Democrat-Capital news staff, received a letter from a resident of Washington, which is printed below. It might be explained one paragraph in the letter refers to a taxicab trip which Scruton took with Ernest "Tony" Vacaro, Associated Press representative to the White House, from National Press club, where the two newspaper men had met earlier in the evening.

Sedalians will read the letter with interest. It follows:

"Silver Spring, Md.,
"Via Washington, D. C.,
"January 31, 1949.

"Mr. D. Kelly Scruton,
"The Sedalia Democrat-Capital,
"Sedalia, Missouri,
"Dear Mr. Editor:

"No doubt you will be surprised to learn that there is a story connected with your recent visit to Washington, which you know nothing about as yet. Since it concerns some former Sedalians and a bit of Missouri history which may be of interest to many of your readers, I am sending it to you as a contribution to your paper from the nation's capital. The story, which seems to be quite a coincidence, comes from my son, Paul R. Weston.

But He Did Know Sedalia

"One evening during the thrilling Inaugural Week, two gentlemen entered a Veteran's cab at the Press Club, one of them a few minutes later alighting at the Raleigh hotel. You, Mr. Scruton, were that gentleman, and as the cab pulled away the other one remarked to the driver, "There goes an editor from a Missouri paper who came here to get first-hand information about the inauguration. You probably never heard of the place—just a little place out in Missouri by the name of Sedalia.' 'Oh! yes,' said the driver, 'I've been there. My mother was born there.' 'Well, well,' said the man, 'I wish I had known that before the editor left us, for I am sure he would have been glad to know that."

"So, you see, Mr. Editor, Sedalia is definitely on the map, not such a small place at all, but quite well known, at least in one home in our capital city. (Incidentally we are part of the 100,000 or more of Washington's population who have overflowed into Maryland and Virginia, although connected with the schools and government departments and affiliated with and actively en-

Smith-Cotton Debate Team Wins Trophy

1st in Tournament In Which Eight Teams Participated

The Smith-Cotton debate team, of which Miss Ann Sawford is instructor, came home Saturday night from Fulton, where they participated in a debate tournament, with the trophey. Members of the team are James Johnston, Dennis Semkin, R. Scott Gardner and Cecil Lujin.

Eight teams took part in the tournament, Carrollton, Fulton, Jefferson City, Marshall, North Kansas City, St. Louis university, St. Paul's of Concordia and Smith-Cotton.

At the end of the preliminaries four teams remained in the tournament with Smith-Cotton in first place.

In the semi-finals St. Louis university was eliminated by Smith-Cotton and North Kansas City was eliminated by Carrollton, and in the finals Smith-Cotton won over Carrollton winning the tournament.

Nothing New

Winning debates is nothing new for the Smith-Cotton debate team. They have won 28 and lost only four of all the debates they have been in during the entire season and have never placed less than third in any meet in which they have participated. They won second place in a tournament at Independence in December.

The team will go to Jefferson City to compete in the sub-district tournament to be held on February 18.

Miss Sawford and members of the team were taken to Fulton Saturday by Pinkney Miller, a member of the Smith-Cotton faculty.

Find Section Of Bomber

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 5—(AP)—Army and Navy surface craft with grappling hooks late today located the main section of a B-25 bomber which crashed into Lake Pontchartrain here with eight airmen aboard.

No trace of survivors was found in the explosion-crash yesterday and all aboard were presumed to have been carried to their deaths.

Parts of bodies were found before nightfall last night.

An Army tug pulled a part of the shattered fuselage to the surface today in rain and mist-hampered operations.

A Navy crash boat found the spot from air bubbles seeping to the surface in an oil slick left by the sunken plane.

Searchers said a barge crane will be moved into place tomorrow to lift the main part of the wreckage. Buoys were attached to separate sections of wreckage under the surface.

A Young Grandmother

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Feb. 5—(AP)—Mrs. George Stephen Nichols of St. Joseph is a grandmother—and she is only 28 years old.

Mrs. Nichols has a two-weeks old grandson, Patrick Stephen Fetty. The baby's mother is Mrs. Methel Belle Fetty, wife of Pfc. Patrick Lee Fetty, a soldier stationed on Okinawa.

Mrs. Fetty will be 15 years old on March 28.

The Weather

Cloudy Sunday with intermittent light rain or drizzle, warmer east and south, highs in 40s; turning colder northwest in afternoon; Monday continued cloudy with occasional snow flurries north, colder.

Thought For Today

Never let man imagine that he can pursue a good end by evil means, without sinning against his own soul! Any other issue is doubtful; the evil effect on himself is certain.—Southey.

Texan Moving to Sedalia to Reside

Mrs. Heber Page, of Dallas, Tex., arrived Saturday to make her home with her sister, Miss May Highleyman, 623 East Thirteenth street. She was accompanied to Sedalia by her daughter, Mrs. W. L. Elliott, who with her husband, Col. Elliott and their daughter, Mrs. David Lord and daughter, Page, will leave March 2, for Honolulu. Col. Elliott was recently transferred to Honolulu.

Men From State Dept. of Education Talk

The Community Teachers' association held its regular meeting at Smith-Cotton high school at 9:30 o'clock Saturday morning.

The meeting was called to order by the president, P. A. Sillers. J. T. Alexander, chairman of the program committee, presented Miss Mary Frances Burlingame, who played a violin solo, "Sonata, No. 4" in D major, the adagio and allegro movements. She was accompanied by Miss Mary Gay Woodruff, of Warrensburg.

Mr. Sillers then called on Edwin Martin, principal of Jefferson school, to introduce the speaker, Dr. Irwin S. Coyle, from the state department in Jefferson City, who spoke on the classification of schools and certification and requirements for teaching certificates in the state of Missouri, as proposed by the state department.

Dr. H. B. Wardlow, of the state department, made a few remarks and answered questions.

In conclusion, Dr. Heber U. Hunt, superintendent of the Sedalia public schools, made a few remarks, about how the new classification would affect Sedalia public schools.

Booster Club To Have Party

The Sedalia Missouri Pacific Booster Club will give its first of a series of entertainments this year on Thursday evening, in Convention Hall, Liberty Park, beginning at 8 p. m.

The Boster club, in its endeavor to provide the best in the way of entertainment, has secured the Men's Choral Club of Sedalia. They will present an hour's program beginning at 8 o'clock. Following the program by the Choral Club there will be dancing for all from 9 o'clock until 12 with the music furnished by Lee Brandt's orchestra.

The Men's Choral Club is under the direction of Abe Rosenthal with Miss Lillian Fox at the piano, and consists of forty male voices.

Convention Hall is expected to be filled to capacity with Missouri Pacific employees, their families and friends. The public is welcome.

The check stand will be in charge of the Nu Phi Mu Sorority, composed of a group of Sedalia's young women.

SAAF Reports Encouraging

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5—(AP)—Senator Kem of Missouri, Republican, is "much encouraged" over prospects that a proposed United States air academy may be located near Sedalia, Mo.

Kem and Representative Christopher of Missouri, Democrat, have introduced bills to put such an academy at the wartime Sedalia air base.

The senator said his "encouragement" comes from views of officers of the air force. Some of them favor location of the academy in the central part of the nation, he said.

"It is impossible to give instruction in the air, classroom and laboratory at the same time," he said. "Many of the officers think a strategic place for the academy would be in the center of the nation."

The senator added the national defense agency is expected to make a report to Congress in the near future on its views about the academy.

Bette Davis Made More Than Durbin

She Gained Top Billing for Woman, Treasury Reports

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4—(AP)—Big-eyed Bette Davis made $328,000 to edge out film songstress Deanna Durbin and gain top billing for their sex tonight on a treasury list of the nation's leading money earners.

But filmdom's scowling Humphrey Bogart finished in front of both. He pocketed $467,361. It was the second list of big salaries issued covering payments for the calender year of 1948 and business fiscal years ending during 1947.

The big bite taken from these top bracket earnings by taxes is not shown in the report.

Miss Davis drew her pay from the same film concern as Bogart, Warner Brothers. Miss Durbin was paid $323,477 by Universal Pictures.

But a woman business executive overtook many of the film lovelies.

Woman Executive High

She is Dorothy Shaver, 51-year-old, Arkansas-born president of Lord and Taylor, New York department store. The store paid her $110,000.

That, for example, was $15,584 more than the $94,416 credited to movie actress Rita Hayworth, now the financee of Ali Khan, wealthy Indian prince.

Second Salary List

The top ten in the second salary list, seven of them from the movie world:

1. Bogart.
2. Jacob W. Schwabb, New York textile magnate, who pooled $340,542 from United Merchants and Manufacturers, Inc., and $100,000 from Cohn-Hall-Marx Co., for a $440,542 total.
3. Miss Davis.
4. Movie actor Dennis Morgan—in real life, Stanley Morner—who drew $325,892 from Warner Brothers.
5. Miss Durbin.
6. Joseph Pulitzer, of the publishing and prize-awarding family, $284,712 from the Pulitzer Publishing Co., St. Louis.
7. William Goetz, Universal Pictures producer, $284,000.
8. Ann Sheridan, the film star, $269,345 from Warner Brothers.
9. R. S. Lesage, Texas (Lesage company), $259,923.

They Tied

10. A tie between Robert Montgomery, the movie actor-producer-director, $250,000 from Universal Pictures, and George W. Mason, board chairman of the Nash-Kelvinator Corporation, Detroit, $250,000.

Actor Fred McMurray got only $175,000 on this list (from Universal Pictures), but he'd gotten $150,000 on the initial list for the period (from Paramount Pictures).

Actress Ginger Rogers and actor Thomas Mitchell were others who appeared on both lists for the 1946 and 1947 fiscal-periods. She got $157,142 this time and $84,478 last; Mitchell got $84,375 this time, $121,875 last.

Although Bogart not only led this list but was the only person on it to draw more than $400,000, he got less than half as much as the lead on the first, partial report—film financier Charles P. Skouras—whose earnings were $985,300.

Pin Operations Here Saturday

Dr. Charles Zuber, of Kansas City, was in Sedalia Saturday at Bothwell hospital where he performed all pin operations on broken bones of patients in the hospital. Dr. Zuber, who is an orthopedic specialist, pinned the fractured hip bones of Mrs. Della Clark, 320 West Fourth street; Charles Gooch, 1700 South Ohio avenue, Mrs. W. S. Glenn, Beaman and Mrs. Mary E. Bussing, Route 1, Sedalia, and the fractured arm bone of George Dorweiler, of Green Ridge. He was accompanied to Sedalia by Miss Rainey, a registered nurse, who assisted him.

Woodland Hospital Notes

Dismissed: Miss Lily Richwine, 512 South Prospect avenue.

Admitted for surgery: Beverly Burnett, eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Burnett, 251 East Chestnut and Roy Woods, Route 4 Sedalia.

Club Speaker

Stansel DeFoe, director of Lake of the Ozarks Boy Scout Council, will be the guest speaker at the noon luncheon meeting of the Sedalia Optimist Club Tuesday at the Bothwell hotel. He will speak on Boy Scout work in the Lake of the Ozark area.

Begin Week of Activities For Boy Scouts

Celebrating 39th Anniversary of Granting Charter

The Pettis District, Lake of the Ozarks Boy Scout Council, is today beginning a week of activities in celebration of the 39th anniversary of the Boy Scouts.

Since the charter by Congress was granted February 8, 1910, the program has affected the lives of 15,500,000 boys and men. At the present time the scouting movement has an active enrollment of 2,200,000. Included in this figure is the Pettis District's registration of 125 boys and 65 adults. Both the national and the local figures are being increased.

The Pettis District program is an important part of the celebration. Julius Stohr, camping and activities chairman has announced an interesting program for the district and units in Sedalia and LaMonte. The activities begin today with all the scouts and cubs attending the church of their choice. On Monday evening, a pot luck supper will be held at the First Baptist church at 6:30 p. m. for all scouts, cubs, scouters, parents and friends. Highlights of the program will be the Court of Honor and speech by Rev. Val Strader of Versailles. The Court of Honor plaque will be presented to the troop having the largest representation present.

Other Activities

Many other activities by the individual units have been planned. Among those are the open house meeting of troop 33, LaMonte, presentation of two God and Country church awards, troop 54, Sedalia and the Tenderfoot investiture for new scouts, troop 50, Sedalia.

The slogan for the week is "Adventure, That's Scouting" and this theme has been used in planning and carrying out the activities. With this week a new two year program is being launched. The slogan will be "Strengthen The Arm of Liberty." The program is designed to give more boys a richer experience and increase their usefulness to the nation.

Bothwell Hospital Notes

Admitted for surgery: Jimmy Singleton, Warsaw.

Admitted for medical treatment: E. S. Bohon, 1824 South Barrett avenue.

Dismissed: W. C. Lee, 1520 South Kentucky avenue; Mrs. Laura French, 614 East Broadway; Mrs. Kenneth Erickson and son, of Versailles, Mrs. Lewis C. Hieronymus and daughter, Star Route, Sedalia; and Adolph Sutor, 1414 East Seventh street.

The condition of Mrs. Pierre Lamy, 619 West Third street, is improved.

The condition of Mrs. John Sneed, Route 5, remains unchanged.

The condition of Mrs. Earl Paul, 1103 West Sixth street, is improved.

Narrow Skirt is Popular, But There are More Full Ones

By Florence Mills

PARIS, Feb. 5—(AP)—Last year's dress or suit will do very well in the Easter parade. But it will need the moral support of a new straw bowler or boater hat, perched on the back of your head.

If you can muster a long stole, you'll really be up to the minute.

A return to the classic suit was seen today when three top flight designers unveiled their spring fashions.

Molyneux, Jacques Heim and Raphael, the master suit-maker, showed suits with longish jacket peplums that hugged the hips, even though waists remained extremely well defined.

But on dressier suits they follow other designers and play tricks with peplums, generally making them look hippy by drapery, intricate folds or jutting pockets.

Brief box jackets over slim skirts are favorites.

The narrow skirt is popular, but full skirted numbers are more numerous.

Mannequins who show these styles have short bobbed hair which seems to enhance youthfulness. But Rita Hayworth, who attended Jacques Fath's opening on Thursday evening with her fiance, Prince Aly Khan, showed no sign of shedding her shoulder-length red tresses. She is planning for her trousseau.

Other big-name designers have yet to show their new fashions, but no radical changes from these houses are expected. The average woman's wardrobe apparently won't be upset this year.

Political Leaders Flare-up

Democrats Accuse Republicans of Dragging Out New Labor Bill Hearings

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5—(AP)—The Senate labor committee climaxed eight hours of public squabbling tonight with Senator Neely (D-WVa) roaring "you keep your mouth shut" to Senator Taft (R-Ohio).

Thus ended the sixth day of one of the bitterest hearings in recent Senate history—a hearing on the Taft-Hartley act and the Truman administration's proposal to replace it with a new labor law.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—(AP)—Democrats accused Republicans tonight of dragging out the senate labor committee's hearings on a new labor bill. The Republicans fired back that the Democrats are treating the legislation as "a political measure."

The latest flare-up came when Chairman Elbert Thomas (D.-Utah) drily observed that the hearings seemed "to be moving along in the course of human events."

Senator Murray (D.-Mont.) said that if the February 10 deadline for completing the hearings is to be met, the questioning will have to be speeded up or "it is going to be impossible" for many scheduled witnesses to testify.

Senator Donnell (R.-Mo.) noted that the decision to end the hearings next Thursday had been made by an 8-5 party-line vote in the committee, and that there is nothing to prevent an extension.

Sen. Aiken Comment

As tempers rose, Senator Aiken (R.-Vt.) told the Democrats they apparently were determined to judge the legislation on its "political merits" and not to regard it " in any degree as a social and economic measure."

Senator Douglas (D.-Ill.) had chided the Republican members of the committee for taking "90 to 95 percent" of today's time in questioning one witness.

"In all kindness," he said, "I would like to request that, in questioning future witnesses, they observe a certain degree of self-restraint." He added the Republicans "should not lend themselves to the appearance of dragging out these hearings unnecessarily."

Ludwig Teller, a New York lawyer, had been on the witness stand all day. He finally was dismissed when the committee recessed for dinner.

Sarcastic Exchange

While Teller was in the chair, Senator Pepper (D.-Fla.) got into a sarcastic exchange with Senator Taft (R.-Ohio). Pepper referred to a Taft news conference yesterday when the Ohioan predicted that congress will retain two-thirds of the Taft-Hartley labor law. He accused Taft of being "inaccurate and erroneous."

Pepper, with irony in his voice, paraphrased Taft as saying it had become clear from the hearings that there would be no more than a nominal repeal of the Taft-Hartley act. Taft cut in sharply to deny he had said it.

Taft reiterated that the final result of congress' work on a new labor law would amount to an amendment of the Taft-Hartley act and not repeal. Democrats have called for repeal and reenactment of the Wagner act in amended form.

A Dead Horse"

Senator Neely (D.-W. Va.) accused Taft of "playing for the headlines" and said the Ohioan is "defending a dead horse" in standing up for the law that bears his name.

Taft, on the other hand, accused Neely of trying to "blackguard" the witness, Teller, who volunteered some praise for the Taft-Hartley act. Teller represents a number of employers in their labor relations.

During the afternoon, Republicans questioned Teller at great length on various provisions of the T-H law.

Stormy Night Session

They carried their bickering into an unusual Saturday night session at which Senator Murray (D-Mont.) angrily accused Gerard D. Reilly, former national labor relations board member, of "double crossing" labor when he helped to write the Taft-Hartley act.

Senators Taft (R.-Ohio) and Donnell (R.-Mo.) shouted protests against the "propriety" of Murray's statement.

Never Thought of Using Own Glass

NEW YORK, Feb. 5—(AP)—Burglars today broke into a Queens firm which manufactures bullet-proof and burglar-proof glass by smashing a glass panel in a door.

The loot taken was estimated at $155, including tools used in the manufacture of burglar prevention equipment.

Said Louis Barltestone, president of the firm:

"It never occurred to us to put our own glass in the door."

The Daily Washington Merry-Go-Round

by Drew Pearson

(Copyright, 1949, by the Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—A. F. Whitney, bustling chief of the railway trainmen, assured President Truman the other day that organized labor will support his "fair deal" legislative program as vigorously as it backed him in the recent election.

"Naturally, there will be some things about your program that some labor groups will object to," said Whitney, "for we all don't see eye-to-eye on everything. However, in the over-all picture labor will be solidly behind you in carrying out the liberal pledges of the Democratic platform."

Truman replied he could ask for no more, since "no living man could write a legislative program" that would suit everybody.

However, what the trainmen's boss didn't reveal was that he had heard a loud objection to one part of the program at a dinner the night before, attended by several Democratic senators and representatives of all the big labor organizations.

John L. Lewis's top lieutenant, Vice President Tom Kennedy of the United Mine Workers, raised Cain about the proposed use of court injunctions to prevent strikes that endanger national health and welfare. Truman had criticized such strikes in his State of the Union message and privately he has said that it may be necessary to put an injunction clause in new labor legislation in order to deal with strikes against the public.

"Labor wants to be free," Kennedy declared vehemently at the private dinner, given by Democratic Senate whip Francis Myers of Pennsylvania. "It will not work under a system of oppressive injunctions. That is dicatorship. Before the United Mine Workers Union will give its approval to the Administration's labor bill, we will have to see the bill in print."

Other labor leaders, including Whitney, Arthur Goldberg of the CIO and Lew Hines of the AFL, didn't commit themselves on the injunction crackdown — aimed chiefly at Lewis. But Whitney endorsed the proposed ban on jurisdictional strikes, which, he said, would reduce union membership "raiding."

In the end, however, Kennedy voted with the others to OK Truman's entire legislative program.

Postoffices for Dixiecrats ? ?

Most interesting test of the no-patronage-punishment for Dixiecrats will come up almost immediately in regard to Postmasterships for Congressman Gene Cox of Georgia.

Although Chairman McGrath has laid down the rule that Dixiecrats get no postmasters for patronage, and though President Truman snubbed Governors Thurmond and Talmadge in the inaugural parade some of the Dixiecrats are betting a ten-gallon hat to a one-gallon hat that they will be able to get choice jobs at the public feed-trough just the same.

One of these is "Goober" Gene Cox, the debonair congressman from Georgia.

Several postmasterships are open in Gene's district and he is going after them, despite the fact that he was one of the bitterest Dixiecrats of all. Cox is relying on his buddy, Speaker Sam Rayburn, one of Truman's best friends but with a weak spot for an old crony. Cox has repeatedly defied Sam as a member of the house rules committee, but the speaker never deserts a friend.

Note—Some administration advisers are pointing out that if the President can't control his own Democratic party sufficiently to pass his program through the 81st congress, he is lost politically, for he can't use the Republican 80th congress as an alibi.

Merry-Go-Round

Will Rogers, Jr., California politico and son of the famous humorist, is lobbying to set up the Navajo nation under an independent administrator—divorced from the Indian Bureau. Rogers, who has adopted two Indian children, wants the job of administrator—with or without a salary . . . Senate doorman H. C. "Cap" Sanders got a bawling-out the other day for conduct unbecoming a doorkeeper. "Cap," who has been opening doors for Senators for 18 years, broke ranks on inauguration day to shake hands with ex-Senator Harry Truman, following which the new sergeant-at-arms, Joe Duke, decided this was no way for a mere doorkeeper to behave. Truth is, President Truman didn't mind at all. He still remembered "Cap" from his Senate days . . . The National Farmers Union is bringing 700 farmers to Washington on a series of sightseeing tours. They won the trip by bringing new members into the union. (Each tour will be routed through the capitol to lobby with congressmen for 100 per cent parity payments.)

Kentucky vs. Maryland Ham

A capital newsman was joshing Vice President Alben Barkley about a 14-pound Maryland ham recently stolen from his office.

"What's a good Kentuckian like you doing eating Maryland ham?" inquired the reporter.

"Oh, that was a present to me from Frederick Maryland," spoke up Barkley's secretary, Flo Bratten.

"Obviously!" rejoined Barkley. "In addition to making the best hams in the country, we Kentuckians pride ourselves on our good manners. That Maryland ham was a present. You can't send something like that back."

Under the Dome

Congressman L. Mendel Rivers, the South Carolina Dixiecrat, has used his connections on the house armed services committee to "borrow" a navy radio and recording equipment—worth several hundred dollars. The equipment was furnished by the naval research laboratory upon Congressman River's demand—but at the taxpayers' expense . . . John J. McCloy, former assistant secretary of war, now president of the World bank, is being pushed for the job of secretary of national defense. (He's a Republican and an able one.) . . . The government has just wound up a survey of the nation's highways for national defense. Results won't be published until April, but the government found that our highways have fallen so far below defense requirements that some roads aren't even equipped to handle everyday, peacetime traffic . . . Senator Pepper of Florida is following up President Truman's inaugural address with a bill to send American technical missions to the backward areas of the world . . . Inside betting in the Republican national committee is that National Chairman Hugh Scott, who was almost dethroned in Omaha last week, will be out on his ear within six months.

gaged in work in a Washington church and others of its cultural organizations.) To return to my story: the cab driver, but no less a gentleman, mentioned above, is my son Paul, and how proud he was to tell me of his service to one of my fellow Sedalians! Paul, by the way, drives his cab only after business hours as his practical way of providing a car for his little family—a lovely wife and two adorable baby daughters (this latter statement being NOT solely a fond grandmother's opinion.)

Missouri History

"The bit of Missouri history in connection with all this concerns my parents and just a bit of the part they played in the educational development of Missouri, their native state also. A few years before the turn of the century, my father, Rev. Thomas William Tate, became the pastor of East Sedalia Baptist church, and with mother and their two small children lived at 1012 East Fifth street. There, one bleak December day, with a Dr. Allen officiating at the birth, I arrived upon the scene and soon began to make my wants known in no uncertain terms. My childhood years were spent mostly in the little town — now such a short drive from Sedalia—of Tipton, where Father was the minister of the Baptist church for a number of years. Later, like so many ministers' families, we packed our belongings and moved again, this time Father accepting a call to the Carondelet church in St. Louis, in which city we lived until my marriage to my Dayton, O., husband, which event took place in the large auditorium of the well known Third Baptist church, now Dr. C. Oscar Johnson's church.

Parents Were Teachers

"Since both of my parents had a part in the educational as well as the religious growth of their state. I mention here that they both were teachers for 10 years and more at schools near Kansas City and Liberty, Father a William Jewell man and Mother having earned her sheep-skin at what was then known as Clay Seminary. Father taught for a number of years at Westport, now I believe a part of Kansas City, and was later president of the school in southeast Missouri known as Will Mayfield college. Former Senator Reed, of Missouri, was tutored by Father. The compilers of 'Missouri Baptist Biography,' recognizing that this minister and his wife had a part in the religious development of the state, requested, at my father's death, that a sketch of his life be furnished for publication in their Volume V, and at Mother's death that a sketch of her life be contributed for their Volume VI, the latter of which to date has not been published. As another point of state history, I am sure you will be interested to learn that my father was one of Missouri's musical and poetic sons. Among his collection I have one of his songs, entitled "Missouri, My Home," which he composed and for which he wrote the lyrics. So captivating is the melody and so appealing the words, this song should be sung in every home in the state and broadcast to the nation.

Stopped In Sedalia

"During a trek through dear old Missouri and its lovely Ozarks a number of years ago, it was our privilege and very great pleasure to stop over in Sedalia, to take our carload of boys and girls to see their mother's birthplace, and to see, inside the East Sedalia church, the lovely window dedicated to their grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. T. W. Tate. The pictures we snapped there were jokingly said to be 'just in case their mother became famous.' So far the prints have not been needed. (If being a member of the Professional Writers' Club of Washington may be called an achievement, then I have gotten that far on the road.) (Another step might be called my membership in the Washington Choral society for the past ten years, which group sang during President Roosevelt's third inaugural ceremonies, and on the Sunday afternoon preceding President Truman's inaugural, were guest singers of the National Symphony orchestra, that being the opening program of Inaugural Week in the capital.) Fame, however, is not the goal for which I am striving. If by my example or the words I attempt to write I may leave the world better—at least a little better—for my having passed through it, then my sojourn will not have been in vain.

"To say that we are proud of our Missourian in the White House does not begin to express our sentiments. Mr. Truman took over his big job in the worst time in the history of the world, and he made good. He has proved himself the man for the position to which he was elected, typically American and so great a man that the very humility with which he seems possessed enhances his greatness. Newspaper columnists and movie theatres are still talking and showing pictures of the great inaugural of our President Truman. The First Baptist church, Washington, (our own church) was honored Sunday by our president, who comes often to worship with us. It was our pastor, Dr. Edward Hughes Pruden, who, after the 21-gun salute, opened the inaugural ceremonies with prayer. We feel that our president, with the divine aid which he so humbly seeks, will lead us on to brighter tomorrows.

Sends Greetings

"To the many friends of the Tate family in Sedalia, Tipton, Kansas City and Liberty and those scattered across the country who read your paper, I should like to send greetings from Washington. This is the city where everyone asks, 'Where are you from?' How thrilling to answer, 'MISSOURI! MISSOURI!'

"And now, Mr. Editor, while my communication has been lengthy as such, it covers more than half a century of a few facts in Missouri's history, and includes your recent visit to Washington and the incident which prompted this writing. If you have space in your paper for this or as much of it as you feel will be of interest to your readers and other Missourians now living elsewhere, I hope to hear from you soon and to receive a copy of your paper containing the item. In which case, I shall want to order other copies sent to friends and relatives. My sincere appreciation to you for your personal attention to this.

"Yours very truly,
"Mary Tate Weston

February is International month; it is also a month of anniversaries. Boy Scout Birthday is February 8. Congratulations Sedalia Boy Scouts on the 39th birthday of Boy Scouts. Abraham Lincoln's Birthday, Feb. 12, St. Valentine's Day, Feb. 14, the history of Saint Valentine's shows that it has friendly as well as romantic associations. Girl Scouts are reminded to remember the hospitals and day nurseries with favors or cards. This is a good day for troop parties to prepare for Girl Scout Birthday, March 12, and their contribution to the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund. Every person in the Girl Scout organization in Sedalia donates one penny for each year of their age. Other localities use different means, such as one penny for each pound of your weight, or one penny for each inch of your height. Parent-Teacher Association Founders' Day, February 17. The Singing Scout troop, under the direction of their leader, Mrs. A. R. Beach, will be on the program for Smith Cotton PTA this month. George Washington's Birthday, February 22, we need no reminder to honor Washington. This is also International Thinking Day, when we observe the birthday anniversaries of Lord and Lady Baden-Powell (both of whose birthdays fall on this date), the founders of Girl Guides and Girl Scouting. National Brotherhood week, February 20-27.

In the leaders meeting Tuesday evening, Mrs. Mary Houston, vice-president presided over the meeting. After the routine business was taken care of, Mrs. Houston called on Mrs. John C. Ryan, for a short talk on the functions of the Juliette Low, committee. Mrs. Ryan stated the Juliette Low Birthday party would be held March 12, the place and details of which will be announced later. Mrs. Ryan also asked for clothes donations to make up seven Clothes for Friendship Kits, to complete our quota of 100. The time having been extended from December 31, 1948 to March 12, 1949, to permit all troops in the U.S.A., to participate in the largest and most worthwhile project ever undertaken by the Girl Scouts.

Due to the temporary closing of Teen-Town, it is necessary to make other arrangements for the Square Dance parties which have been held at Teen Town the first Monday of the month. This has been a program for 11th and 12th grade Girl Scouts from Smith-Cotton and Sacred Heart. Boys of comparable age from these schools are guests of the Girl Scouts. Mrs. J. Pierre Lamy, is chairman of this phase of the senior program and will make announcement shortly of the time and place of this activity.

Troop 33, Whittier school, held an election of officers to complete the Scout year. Elected were: Sandra Houston, president; Janice Robinson, scribe; Sue McNealy, pledge; Barbara Watson, song; Dorothy Bethke, treasurer. The girls then worked on their troop project. Mrs. Mary Houston and Mrs. C. R. Hall are troop leaders.

No Big Change For 'Look '49'

PARIS, February 4—(AP)—Paris fashion showings began Thursday and from first glimpses there will be nothing revolutionary about "Look '49."

Although it is too soon for final judgment, it looks like last year's dresses can be touched up sufficiently to keep you in style this spring without buying an entire new wardrobe.

Dresses, Balanciaga and Paquin showed fashions today which stressed both the slim and full skirts of 1948.

Dresses, the Greek designer, played tricks with stoles and had them growing out of different parts of the skirt and entwining the figure. He put hemlines 13 inches from the ground but Balaciaga and Paquin both showed suits and day dresses nearly 15 inches from the ground.

Our word "magic" is derived from the magi, who fell from a priestly and learned caste of the ancient Persians, to strolling jugglers and soothsayers reputed to practice the black arts.

SETTING A NEW WORLD STANDARD OF LOW-COST MOTORING

Everything about it tells you this new

CHEVROLET

is the most Beautiful BUY of all

Styleline De Luxe 2-Door Sedan

...in all these features and in all these ways!

Look at this new Chevrolet, inside and outside! Consider it from every point of view and on every point of value!

We believe you'll agree it's the most beautiful buy for smartness and distinction, for comfort and roominess, for driving and riding ease, for performance and safety . . . because it offers feature after feature of costlier cars at the lowest prices and with all the economy of operation and upkeep for which Chevrolet is famous.

You'll find that now more than ever before Chevrolet merits the title of being "first for quality at lowest cost"; and that it is, indeed, the most beautiful buy of all, in all these features and in all these ways.

First for Quality at Lowest Cost

AMERICA'S CHOICE CHEVROLET FOR 18 YEARS

CHEVROLET

is the only car bringing you all these fine-car advantages at lowest cost!

The Most Beautiful BUY for STYLING

Chevrolet's New Leader-Line Styling is lower, wider, racier . . . the most beautiful development of the new "functional form" for motor cars . . . with new Beauty-Leader Bodies by Fisher that are true masterpieces by the master builder of fine coachcraft, in styling, in fixtures and fabrics, and in alluring color harmonies.

The Most Beautiful BUY for COMFORT

The new Chevrolets have Super-Size Interiors with plenty of head, leg and elbowroom; extra-restful, extra-comfortable "Five-Foot Seats"; and giant luggage space in rear decks. Moreover, these are "cars that breathe," for a highly-efficient heating* and ventilating system inhales outside air, exhales stale air and keeps glass clear in all weather. *(Heater and defroster units optional at extra cost.)

The Most Beautiful BUY for RIDING EASE

A new, even finer Unitized Knee-Action Ride, combined with new direct-acting airplane type shock absorbers on all four wheels and extra-low pressure tires, provides the highest degree of riding-smoothness; and new Center-Point Seating, with front and rear seats centered on the chassis, gives all passengers a preferred riding position—true cradled comfort—and much easier entrance and exit, as well.

The Most Beautiful BUY for DRIVING EASE

New Center-Point Steering (available elsewhere only in much higher-priced cars); new Panoramic Visibility, with wider, curved windshield and more window area all-round; and new Hand-E-Gearshift with Synchro-Mesh Transmission—all combine to give a degree of driving ease and driving safety exclusive to this one low-priced car.

The Most Beautiful BUY for PERFORMANCE with ECONOMY

The famous Chevrolet Valve-in-Head Engine gives a world of power, acceleration, smoothness and dependability . . . together with all of Chevrolet's remarkable economy of operation and upkeep . . . and this is the world's champion engine, mind you, for it has delivered more miles of satisfaction, to more owners, over a longer period, than any other power-plant built today.

The Most Beautiful BUY for ALL-ROUND SAFETY

Here's fivefold safety protection found in no other low-priced car: (1) New Certi-Safe Hydraulic Brakes providing even faster stops with safety; (2) Extra-Strong Fisher Unisteel Body-Construction; (3) New Panoramic Visibility, (4) Safety Plate Glass in windshield and all windows, and (5) the extra-safe Unitized Knee-Action Ride. Yes, only this new Chevrolet brings you all these advantages at lowest cost; and that's why it's the most beautiful buy of them all, from every point of view and on every point of value.

Plus

NEW CENTER-POINT DESIGN

A remarkable 4-way engineering advance exclusive to Chevrolet in its field, and consisting of Center-Point Steering—Center-Point Seating—Lower Center of Gravity and Center-Point Rear Suspension gives the new Chevrolet riding and driving results without precedent or parallel in low-cost motoring. That means a new kind of riding ease and a new kind of driving ease heretofore reserved for owners of more expensive cars. Remember—only new Center-Point Design can give you all these finer motoring results; and only the new Chevrolet brings you Center-Point Design at lowest cost!

D.; Mrs. Will Miller and Mrs. Cecil Spickert, Santa Rosa, Calif.; Mrs. John Hanson, Sioux Falls, S. D., Mrs. Paul Weithoner, Carthage; Miss Ann Carpenter, 404 East Sixth street, Sedalia. A sister, Mrs. Edna H. Dump died last December 1.

Funeral services will be in LaMonte, the time not decided upon late last night.

Mrs. Myrtle Eckhoff Gross

Mrs. D. L. Cross, of Dallas, Tex., died Tuesday after a lingering illness. She was Miss Myrtle Eckhoff, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Chris Eckhoff, pioneer residents of Sedalia. Since her marriage, she had resided in Oklahoma and Texas.

Survivors include: a son, W. D. Cross and one grandson, of the home; two sisters, Mrs. Edna M. Stotts, of Tulsa, Okla.; Mrs. Helen Stermitzke, of Parsons, Kas.; and one brother, Earl H. Eckhoff, of Los Angeles, Calif.

Burial was in Dallas.

Funeral of Warren G. Stephens

Funeral services for Warren G. Stephens, 60 years old, who died at his home in Kansas City, Thursday evening, were held at the Ewing funeral home at 2:00 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

The Rev. Walter P. Arnold, pastor of the East Sedalia Baptist, church, officiated, assisted by Rev. H. U. Campbell, pastor of the Fifth Street Methodist church.

Mrs. M. O. Stevens and Mrs. R. H. Robb sang, "The Old Rugged Cross," "Sometime We'll Understand" and "Just As I Am" accompanied by Mrs. Mae Moser at the organ.

Friends who served as pallbearers were Hugh Collins, Everett White, George Dugan, B. S. Hutchison, Lloyd Damon and Earl Wingate.

Interment was in the Memorial Park cemetery.

Relatives and friends from out-of-town here to attend the funeral were Sam Brandstetter and Jess Bailey, of Kansas City, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hollenback and daughter, Sally Jo, of Frontenac, Kas., and Glenn Nelson, of Otterville.

Edward Bacon

Edward Bacon, of 1014 South Lamine avenue, died Saturday morning at the Veterans hospital, Wadsworth, Kas., where he had been a patient since early in December.

He was a member of VFW Post, 2508, Sedalia, and this organization is sending the body to Poplar Bluff for burial.

The VFW, Post 3172, of Poplar Bluff, will have charge of the funeral service.

Mr. Bacon was born July 21, 1896.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Stell Bacon, of the home and two sisters, Mrs. P. G. Haag, Poplar Bluff and Mrs. Roy Martons, of Wilmete, Ill.

Joseph C. Kuttenkuller

Mrs. Whitaker is survived by her husband and five children by a former marriage: Clarence, Alta, Paul, Doris and Earl Lumpee. She is also survived by the following brothers and sisters, Mrs. Emma McNabb, Ernest and Thomas Pierce of Amarillo, Texas; Franklin Pierce of Ada, O.; Mrs. Blanche Huff of Normal, Ill.; Mrs. Glenna Cromley, Marshall, Mo. and Mrs. Bessie Hunter of Sedalia.

Funeral services will be held in Tucumcari, Monday.

Charged With Husband's Death

MARYVILLE, Mo., Feb. 5.—(AP)—Mrs. Mollie Mathers, 63, was bound over to circuit court today on a first degree murder charge of killing her husband, Manifee Mathers, 65, of Hopkins, Mo.

The farm woman was committed to the Nodaway county jail following the preliminary hearing in magistrate court, division two, with Judge J. F. Roelofson presiding.

Mrs. Mathers, who in a signed statement stated she bludgeoned to death her husband January 29, was not represented by counsel.

Prosecuting Attorney Emmett Bartram introduced as evidence a hammer and a 15-inch block of firewood. They were labeled as the probable instruments of death and were identified by Sheriff Earl Anderson.

Other witnesses today were Dr. L. E. Dean, Coroner, and Neal Sheehan, a reporter, who witnessed signing of Mrs. Mathers' statement.

No date has been set for the next court action before Judge Ray Weightman of the fourth judicial circuit.

Sacredness About Work, Speaker Says

BPWC Passes Resolution on Air Academy Plan

The Rev. D. Warren Neal, pastor of the Broadway Presbyterian church, was the guest speaker at the Business and Professional Women's club dinner meeting at the Bothwell hotel, Thursday night. His subject was "Building for the Future."

Miss Lois Fricke, club president, spoke of the efforts being made by Sedalians to have the Air Academy located in Sedalia, explaining that many persons were writing Senator Tydings, Representative Vinson and Missouri senators and representatives.

On motion of Miss Hazel Palmer the club endorsed the movement and pledged efforts toward having it located here.

Special Music

The invocation was asked by Mrs. A. H. Rush. There was special music by Mrs. Homer Keith, accompanied by Mrs. Fred Ross. Guests introduced were: Mrs. Louise Orear, with Miss Maude Sanders; Mrs. E. F. Hausam, with Mrs. Virginia Flower Hayes; Mrs. Neal, wife of the speaker, guest of Miss Ann Sawford and Mrs. Neal's mother, Mrs. Miller, guest of Miss Sarah Yarnell.

New members presented were Mrs. R. A. Malone and Mrs. Bessie Woodward Miller.

Mr. Neal, introduced by Miss Sawford, said that since dropping of the atom bomb which ended the war, people have been waiting for a catastrophe to happen. Both young people and loder peaple have taken a fateful look at the whole situation, as if there was little use in looking forward to anything, but he said, although the future is a gamble, young people should go ahead and prepare themselves to be doctors, lawyers, ministers or whatever work they choose.

There is a sacredness about work, both with hands and brains, Mr. Neal said, for although God created heaven and earth there is still work to do and we are still creating. We should use our lives in such a way that they will outlast us, he said.

Like Your Work

Men are ordained to the ministry when they receive a call and they should be ordained to any other kind of work to which they receive a call, the speaker said, to farming, where they always create or to any job for which they have a liking. It is better to be in a work you are called to do, even at a cut in salary, than a job you do not like, he said. There is no religion irrelevant if it can be used in any common work, he said, and youth should plan for a future work in which they will be happy.

The scholarship committee, Miss Sawford, Mrs. A. L. Bohling and Miss Margaret Grady, were in charge of the meeting.

Woman 67, Weds Youth, Aged 18

HUGO, Okla., Feb. 5—(AP)—Eighteen-year old Donald D. Conway and Mrs. Mossie Hall, 67, were married here today at the end of a five-day May-and-December courtship.

"It was love at first sight," friends of the couple said after the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Charles M. Barrett of the Church of God.

The marriage was delayed one day, because of reluctance of the groom's mother, Mrs. Clara Sellers, to give her written consent.

"I'm not in favor of it, but if Donald wants to go through with it I guess I'll have to," Mrs. Sellers said.

The new Mrs. Conway met the youth at the first of the week when she came here with her sister on a visit from Dallas.

The couple disappeared after the ceremony and were not available for comment. Conway has been working at odd jobs in Hugo.

Friends described the bride, a widow until today, as "the grandmotherly type."

Car Skids on Icy Pavement

Gerald H. Smith, coming toward Sedalia from his home in Otterville, in a 1931 Chevrolet coupe, didn't quite reach his destination in his car.

While coming around the curve near the Missouri Pacific underpass on east highway 50, his automobile hit a slick spot in the pavement which caused him to lose control of the car, about 8:20 o'clock, Saturday night.

The car ended up hitting the concrete abutment on the south side of the highway. Smith was slightly injured in the knee and received a minor cut to his face.

The car, the front end of which was badly damaged was towed to the Chamberlain's garage, Broadway and Engineer avenue.

Inquiry Into Girl's Death

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. Feb. 5—(AP)—An autopsy failed to explain the death of an 18-year-old girl in a tourist cabin here today, and officers pinned their hopes on further tests.

Dr. Clyde Abbott, Greene county coroner, summoned a jury which viewed the body of Betty Massie of Lebanon, Mo., and ordered the inquest.

Dr. Abbott said the jury was excused without hearing any testimony to await results of a blood analysis and microscopic examination of sections taken from the body.

Police are holding the dead girl's companion, Mrs. Rozella Blackburn Wimberly, 19, of route 1, Phillipsburg, Mo., and still are searching for two men in the Arkansas car who shared the cabin with the girls.

Mrs. Wimberly gave police a statement in which she said the two men left the cabin about daylight today and that Miss Massie slapped one of them when he cursed her.

According to her statement, Mrs. Wimberley went back to sleep and awakened several hours later to find her friend dead.

An Unusual Election Bet

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 5—(AP)—Because he lost an election bet on who would be the new governor of Missouri, a former St. Louisian will take a job as chauffeur-bodyguard at $20 a week plus room and board.

An advertisement for the job will appear in the Los Angeles Times tomorrow.

The man who inserted the ad is Fred Kiesel, Jr., 28, of St. Louis. He refused to identify the other party to the bet but said he was a small manufacturer in San Francisco who formerly lived here.

If he had lost, Kiesel would have had to work for the manufacturer for about a year, without pay.

Answers to the ad will come to Kiesel, who will select the job his friend is to take.

Rockefeller Heir To Marry in June

NEW YORK, Feb. 5—(AP)—Miss Abby Rockefeller Milton, granddaughter of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is engaged to marry George Dorr O'Neill, grandson of the late Rep. John J. O'Neill. of Missouri.

The engagement was announced today by her parents, Mrs. Irving H. Pardee and David M. Milton. She made her debut in December, 1946, and has been doing volunteer work in Massachusetts general hospital in Boston.

O'Neill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover O'Neill, of New York and Oyster Bay Cove, N. Y.

The wedding is set for June, when he is to be graduated from Harvard.

Bagby, of Marshall, is general manager.

Mrs. Seelen and children, Susan and Sara, are temporarily staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hanley, until they can find living quarters in Kansas City.

Yellow Nylon Note In Navajo Styles

GALLUP, N. M., Feb. 5—(AP)—Bright yellow nylon will add a new note to Navajo styles this spring.

The parachutes that bring food and other supplies to the storm-ridden tribe are providing the material. The Indian women are grabbing it up.

Students of Indian ways expect the cloth to appear in the Navajos' gypsy-like costume as skirts and blouses for the women and shirts for the men.

Couple May Be Reunited

BRISTOW, Okla., Feb. 5—(AP)—With the aid of a group of Bristow citizens, the romance of Mrs. Ella Mershon, 67, and Barkeley Burris, 72, the husband from whom she was separated 42 years ago, may yet end happily.

The couple parted yesterday after deciding they could not remarry because of their finances. Then the Bristow group announced it was raising money to make up for any loss Burris might suffer by removing himself from Texas pension rolls.

March of Dimes Container Filled And Turned In

The first March of Dimes container, to be filled in Sedalia, and turned in to James Durley, county chairman of the drive, came from the sub-post office, at the Bard Drug Co., Saturday. It contained $21.75.

Young Sedalian Wins Award In Magazine Cartoon Contest

One young Sedalia lady has shown within recent months a budding talent in an enjoyable and profitable line of art work—that of a magazine cartoonist. She is Miss Rosalie Mountjoy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Mountjoy, of 1629 South Park avenue.

Rosalie Mountjoy

It all came about back in August of 1948, when Miss Mountjoy happened to be glancing through an issue of The Poland China World, a rural monthly magazine devoted to the study and care of that type of swine. The magazine at that time had begun a new feature — a cartoon gag contest. It consisted of the familiar magazine cartoon, but without an explanatory "gag line," which the contestant is to supply.

Miss Mountjoy became interested and submitted an entry. In September she received word that she had won the first monthly contest, and that her cash award was on the way. Since that time — just to prove that it wasn't beginner's luck — Miss Mountjoy has won two more of the contests. Three wins out of six contests is an impressive average for any type of magazine contest.

Explanation of Contest

In recognition of her victories, the February issue of The Poland China World carried an article and the above picture of Miss Mountjoy. A short sketch of her life and activities was presented, together with some information on how the contest was conducted. The article stated that the judges select the winner on cartoon cleverness alone, rather than by chance or a geographical distribution of winners' cities, which is a positive indication of Miss Mountjoy's talent. The article also stated that entries were received from many states, mentioning several from Ohio to California.

Miss Mountjoy is a native of Smithton, but now resides with her parents in Sedalia. She is employed as a bookkeeper and stenographer for the Missouri State Fair, and it was in her work that she happened to come across the magazine and contest. Miss Mountjoy has also worked in clerical capacities for Walt Disney's movie studio in Burbank, Calif., and at the 20th Century Fox studios at Beverly Hills, Calif.

Drawing Her Own Pictures

Miss Mountjoy stated that she has always held an interest in magazine cartoons, and has recently started to draw her own pictures to produce complete cartoons. She has contacted national magazines with these, but none of them have been accepted for publication as yet.

In addition to this hobby, Miss Mountjoy has interests in writing children's stories, painting, and playing the piano. She is also fond of outdoor sports.

Al Barkus to Manage The Pittsburg Browns

PITTSBURG, Kas. Feb. 5—(AP)—Al Barkus of Royalton, Ill., will be the playing manager of the Pittsburg Browns in the KOM league for the 1949 baseball season, Nonie Baker, Pittsburg business manager, said tonight.

Barkus, 29, is a righthanded hurler who was with Elmira, N. Y., of the class a Eastern League last season. For two years previous, he was on the mound of the New York State league. This will be first experience as manager but he comes highly recommended by the parent St. Louis Browns.

Charles Would Fight Joe Louis

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 5—(AP)—Ezzard Charles said today he's ready to fight Joe Louis—but would be just as happy if the heavyweight champion doesn't defend his title again.

The 27-year-old Cincinnati Negro is in town for a 10-round bout with Johnny Haynes, 210-pounder from New York, Monday night.

Charles, rated by Louis as the top heavyweight contender, said he wishes Louis would "stay retired so I wouldn't have to fight him."

But, Charles added, if Louis insists on fighting again and that Charles get 'the chance to be the challenger, it will be my job to flatten him."

The 180-pound Ohioan said that he'd very much prefer if Louis would drop out of the picture so that "the rest of us heavyweights could settle the question among ourselves as to who's the next champion."

Charles said he always has idolized Louis and has often shuddered at the thought of taking a punch at the champ

"I still feel that way," said Charles, "but it wouldn't stop me from trying to knock him out—if I have to."

Charles is rated in the same fistic drawer as Lee Savold, Jersey Joe Walcott and Gus Lesnevich as potential challengers for the Louis diaden—and Charles says it's a tough proposition to get a match with any of that trio.

Savold is playing "hard to get," Charles said.

Walcott wants too much money, he added.

Lesnevich is not supposed to be interested in fighting Charles.

So, in the meantime, Charles plans to take on as many heavyweight foes as he can.

'Socialized Medicine' is Topic of Talk

Given Members of Sedalia Life Underwriters

"It is, indeed, the time for the medical profession to roll up its sleeves and go to work right on the street corners of America, and if we continue as academicians, as in the past, I frankly fear that we will soon practice as a medical bureau in Washington direct," Dr. W. A. Bloom, Fellow American College of Surgeons and head of the Lee hospital in Fayette said while addressing members of Sedalia Life Underwriters at their noon luncheon meeting at the Bothwell hotel, Saturday.

The speaker was introduced by Dr. E. L. Rhodes, president of Pettis County Medical Society, and was a guest of Dr. Rhodes and Victor Eisenstein.

Besides the regular members of the insurance profession, the following medical doctors, dentists and optometrists were present: Doctors W. A. Beckmeyer, J. W. Boger, A. J. Campbell, J. E. Cannady, D. P. Dyer, David R. Edwards, J. B. O'Neill, E. L. Rhodes, Gordon Stauffacher, C. B. Trader, A. L. Walter, G. H. Abney, O. J. Durnell, W. E. Pearl, T. D. Shaad, E. H. Robinson, Russell Drenon, F. O. Murphy, Floyd D. Lively, Lawrence S. Geiger, and Dr. Cooper of Warrensburg. Other guests were: Bertha Welch, Sam Ross, Harry Krueger, and the Rev. J. W. Watts.

"Socialized Medicine"

In his topic, "Socialized Medicine" the speaker related, "it is the handiest possible weapon of would be dictators, and of bureaucrats, who seek to perpetuate themselves in power. Give a government agency the authority to supervise the daily health problems of every citizen and to handle the money for national medical and hospital care, and you put government further into the lives of the American people by a single step than it has ever encroached in the entire course of our history as a nation."

"Well, just how do you feel about the immediate prospects?" the speaker asked. "There certainly is nothing in the present future to warrant optimism. This is a fight we cannot abandon, one we must not lose. Our history of progress of the medical profession in this nation, is little short of miraculous. That continuing miracle, of course has been made possible only by the greater miracle of individual liberty and opportunity under constitutional representative government."

Nine Stolen Cars Recovered

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 5—(AP)—St. Louis police said today a widespread search is on for a man who forged names of St. Louis automobile dealers in applying for titles and state licenses at Jefferson City.

At least nine automobiles stolen from the St. Louis area alone have been recovered.

The titles and licenses were obtained, then motor numbers on the stolen cars were changed to correspond with the numbers of the fraudulently obtained title certificates.

Detective Sgt. Richard Jerabeck said the scheme was discovered when the man gave a motor number of a vehicle which had been registered before.

The stolen machines were later sold to a dealer in Springfield, Mo., who bought them in good faith and resold them to individuals, police said.

Jerabeck said the cars recovered were located through the dealer's help. The sergeant did not identify the dealer or the man sought.

Warsaw Man Dragged To Death

WARSAW, Mo., Feb. 5—(AP)—Arthur E. Anderson, 64, was dragged to death by his own truck Friday afternoon despite frantic rescue efforts by two elderly bystanders.

Anderson had crawled beneath his jacked-up half-ton truck to put skid chains on the rear wheels. The truck slipped off the jack and started rolling. Anderson's clothing was caught and he was dragged about 50 feet.

William Hess, 73, and J. O. Smith, 71, who were watching Anderson tried vainly to stop the moving vehicle. It was finally halted by Russell J. Smith, operator of the Sleepy Hollow Camp, who leaped into the cab and set the brake.

Anderson had been living at the Sleepy Hollow Camp for two years. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Mayme Leighty and Mrs. Leonard Johannes, both of St. Joseph, Mo.

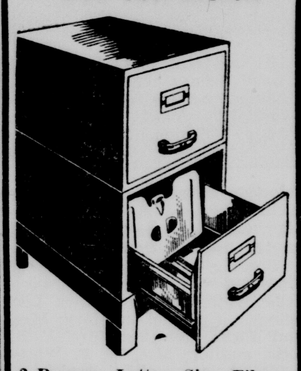

Mistook Bookmobile For Laundry Truck

CHILLICOTHE, Mo., Feb. 5—(AP)—The county library bookmobile looked just like a laundry truck to the man who tried to give driver Earl Williams a pair of pants to clean.

Williams explained he wasn't in the pants cleaning business and wound up by persuading the man to fill out a library card and check out two novels.

Red Cross Corner

The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Pettis county chapter, American Red Cross, was held Thursday morning at A.R.C. headquarters. Considering the weather and the fact that there is much sickness among the members, the meeting was fairly well attended. The principal topic under discussion was the fund campaign. The board approved the plan of compiling a booklet of chapter activities for the past year, and when completed this booklet will be distributed to key people in the community and the chapter.

Any industry, or utility company, and any group, whether a church or club group, that wishes to interest its members in Red Cross first aid may have the services of any of our 11 first aid instructors. A first aid course invariably proves of great value, and it has been proved time and again, that those people who have taken the course find so many uses for the instruction that they wonder how they got along without it. Our instructors are well trained and thoroughly experienced. A training class in first aid will be an addition to the spring activities of any group in both city and county. Call the Red Cross office, 618 for more specific information.

Jet-Powered Plane Into Sea

EL SEGUNDO, Calif., Feb. 5—(AP)—A secret, jet-powered Navy carrier-type bomber crashed into the Pacific Friday, and its two veteran pilots were presumed dead.

Witnesses said the craft went into a steep dive at about 4,000 feet and spiraled into the sea a mile and a quarter off shore. Two helmets were recovered near a part of a wing and an oil slick, but there was no trace of any bodies.

North American Aircraft identified the occupants as Albert W. Conover Jr., 28, of Torrance, Calif., who flew the navy's first jet plane, and Charles E. Brown, 35, of nearby Hawthorne, an Air Force hero with 15 kills to his credit over Europe.

A North American spokesman said there was no hint of what happened to the three-engined craft, still so secret that the Navy has permitted announcement of virtually no details of its construction. The municipal airport tower in Los Angeles reported routine contact with the ship during the 18 minutes between its takeoff and crash, but there was nothing from the plane to indicate anything wrong.

Assistant to CIO Director Dead

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 5—(AP)—Powers Hapgood, 49, assistant to the national director of organization for the CIO was found dead Friday night in his automobile beside a road south of Indianapolis.

He had just called on a physician and had been ordered to take a complete rest. A witness said his automobile left the road at low speed and came to a stop against a bush in a yard.

Hapgood had been active in labor for 25 years. He fought John L. Lewis for leadership of the United Mine Workers and later helped organize the CIO. He later was regional director of the CIO in Indiana.

A graduate of Harvard university, he worked in coal mines in the United States, Great Britain, Japan, Russia, France and Germany. In 1927 he went to Boston to help the vain attempt to save Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti from execution.

He was Socialist candidate for governor of Indiana in 1932 but later withdrew from the Socialist party.

Decrees Palmer 'Legally Dead'

OTTAWA, Kas., Feb. 5—(AP)—Doyle A. (Jack) Palmer, missing Ottawa contractor, was declared legally dead Friday by Probate Judge Floyd Coffman.

Palmer disappeared Dec. 26 while flying his private plane to Kansas City Belief has been expressed the plane might have plunged into the Missouri river.

After hearing the testimony of seven witnesses, Judge Coffman ruled the evidence showed no motive on the part of Palmer for abandoning his family and no business or financial difficulties. The evidence also showed, Coffman said, that Palmer was exposed "to dangerous circumstances" in making the flight.

The petition for the hearing was filed by Palmer's heirs, his wife and three children by a former marriage. Attorneys said an agreement had been reached by Mrs. Palmer and the three children for taking the legal step in order that the contractor's estate might be settled.

The three children, Jack, Mary and Barbara Palmer live with their mother in Trenton, Mo. They were not present at the hearing.

Dennis Gets X-Ray Without a Fee

Dennis, about 7 or 8 years old, was one out of 1,235 Pettis countians who took tuberculosis chest X-rays, without paying for it.

He wandered into the court house Friday afternoon and made friends with women there who were in charge of assisting patients in filling out cards, etc.

Dennis happened to see the X-ray machine and the red light go on when patients got X-rayed. This fascinated him and he wanted to have his picture taken too, so he could make the red light go on, but he didn't have the required fee of 75 cents.

The fee didn't stop him, because he was going to earn the money by selling T. B. pamphlets. (These pamphlets were handed out free of charge to patients when they came for X-rays.)

Finally, the women conceded, they arranged so he could take his X-ray and make the red light flicker on.

At 5:00 o'clock, closing time and the last day the T. B. association will be in Sedalia this year, Dennis was still there offering his assistance to the women.

Soldiers Guilty In Sheets Theft

FT. LEAVENWORTH, Kas., Feb. 5—(AP)—Three soldiers have been convicted by Army courts martial on charges of theft and sale of government bedsheets, Ft. Leavenworth authorities announced Friday.

Capt. Carl J. Migdail, public information officer, said the three were:

Pvt. James A. Tompkins, 23, Rockford, Mich.; Pvt. J. Y. Judd, 23, Fort Scott, Kas., and Cpl. Manuel A. Lawson, 38, Bonne Terre, Mo.

Thompkins was convicted Thursday on 18 counts of warehouse breaking, theft of sheets and unlawful sale of sheets. The Army court recommended that his sentence be set at 15 years.

Migdail said the case still must be reviewed by Lt Gen. Manton S. Eddy, commanding general of the post, and under Army regulations the sentence may be reduced.

Judd and Lawson were found guilty at hearings held earlier before another panel of officers on one count each of warehouse breaking, theft and unlawful sale of sheets. The recommended sentence for each man was two years.

Migdail said witnesses included a half dozen civilians who have been questioned or arraigned on charges in connection with the thefts.

Fractures Leg In Rush To Aid Injured Sister

WICHITA, Kas., Feb. 5—(AP)—Millie and Gladys McDonald, sisters, occupy twin beds in a hospital room here as casualties of icy weather.

Gladys broke her right ankle, Thursday, when she slipped and fell as she rushed to help Millie—who had just fallen and snapped a bone in her left leg.

Rebuilding at Lumber Yard

Re-building of the Looney and Bloess Lumber company, which was completely destroyed by fire January 20 is now under construction, Herman E Bloess, vice-president of the company said.

The building will be in the same style as the ones that were burned, except for being more modern, Mr. Bloess announced.

North and south sheds are now being framed, and if the weather stays favorable, the buildings will be completed in about three weeks, Mr. Bloess said.

In the meantime business will go on as usual at their temporary office location, 321 East Main street, he said.

Street Flare Ignites Tire

A street flare ignited a tire on a tool trailer, owned by the Southwestern Bell Telephone company at 10:45 o'clock Friday night.

Slight damage resulted from the blaze. The telephone company had the trailer parked there using tools in repair work.

Marriages, Society, Club Activities In And Around Sedalia

In an impressive ceremony, a solemn nuptial high mass, Miss Margaret Eleanor Karigan, Sedalia, became the bride of John Quinton Fischer, of Tipton, at 9:00 o'clock Wednesday morning at the St. Patrick's church, with the Rev. Joseph Fischer, Wichita, Kas., uncle of the bridegroom, as celebrant, Rev. L. J. Growney, Sedalia, as deacon, and the Rev. John DeAngeles, Tipton, sub-deacon. The double ring service was read before an altar setting of white gladioli and huckleberry.

Altar boys were Eddie and Eugene Burke, nephews of the bride, John Fischer, cousin of the bridegroom, and Paul Rialti.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Maude E. Karigan, 1403 East Twelfth street, and Mr. Fischer is the son of Mrs. John Norman, of Tipton.

Slipper white satin was the material of the bride's gown, which was lace trimmed and fashioned with long bodice, buttoned down the back, sleeves pointed over the wrists and a skirt which lengthened into a long flowing train and was also lace trimmed. Her veil fell from a tiara of seed pearls and she carried a showered cascade bouquet of white roses and lilies. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Trudy Kraus, of Sedalia, as maid of honor, wore a gown of rose taffeta faille with matching hat and carried a crescent bouquet of blue carnations.

The two bridesmaids also wore taffeta faille gowns styled like that of the maid of honor, Miss Mary Elizabeth Flamming of Sedalia was in gold shade with matching hat and her crescent bouquet was of pink carnations.

Maurice Fischer, of Tipton, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man and ushers were Hilory Dick, George Kyttenkuler and Henry Fischer, all of Tipton,, and Robert Fingland, of Sedalia.

Mrs. J. J. Comer, organist, accompanied A. V. Domingue, tenor, who sang "Panis Angelicos" by Carrol Franck, and "Ave Maria" by Gounod. Mrs. Comer also played the processional and recessional.

Mrs. Karigan, mother of the bride, was attired in a dress of teal blue with black accessories, the bridegroom's mother was in a navy blue dress with accessories of black and his grandmother wore a black dress with black accessories. All three wore corsages of white carnations.

Following the ceremony at 11:00 o'clock a brunch was given by the bride's mother at the Old Missouri Homestead. Guests were members of the wedding party. Arrangements of gladioli, snapdragons and jonquils were used as table decorations.

In the afternoon a reception was given by the bride's sister, Mrs. Paul Burke at her home, 523 West Seventh street, at which there were approximately 225 guests. Cut flowers were used about the home and the dining table on which was a lace cover of crochet pineapple design, was centered with a three tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom, and two wedding rings held by white doves. Three lighted tapers at either end of the table were in crystal holders.

Miss Dorothy Swope cut the cake, assisted by Miss Madeline Knipp of Tipton, cousin of the bridegroom. Serving were Miss Juanita Lyle and Miss Bettye Sedlak. Mrs. W. C. Dick was door hostess and Mrs. Robert Fingland presided over the guest book.

The couple left on a wedding trip to New Orleans, La., after which they will be at home in an apartment at 216 West Sixth street. The bride chose for traveling a gray suit with wine pin stripe, and coat, hat and accessories of navy blue. Her corsage was of American beauty rosebuds.

The bride attended St. Patrick's grade school and was graduated from the Smith-Cotton high school. She has been employed as cashier for the Public Loan Corporation.

Mr. Fischer attended St. Andrew's grade school in Tipton and was graduated from the Tipton high school. He is employed as soil and conservation contractor.

AT the Thursday afternoon 1:00 o'clock luncheon and bridge at the Sedalia Country club, Mrs. Hebur U. Hunt, Mrs. Herman E. Bloess, Sr., and Mrs. Victor Scott were mah jongg winners and Mrs. C. R. Bothwell, bridge winner.

Miss Betty Lou Radke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Radke, of Florence, whose engagement to Robert Poague, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Poague, of Lincoln, has been announced by her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Radke, of Florence, announce the engagement of their daughter, Betty Lou, to Robert Poague, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Poague, of Lincoln.

Rev. Lee C. Sheppard, pastor of the Student Center First Baptist church in Columbia, married Miss Almeda Albertson, daughter of Mrs. Captolia Albertson, 524 East Third street, and Mr. James Holloway, son of Mrs. Dora M. Holloway, of Poplar Bluff, in marriage in a single ring ceremony Thursday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock. The chapel was lighted by candle.

Miss Albertson wore a two-piece dusty rose crepe dress, and grey suede accessories. She wore early spring flowers.

The bride was graduated from Smith-Cotton high school in 1946 and attended the Central Business College. She then accepted a position with the Bryant Motor company.

Mr. Holloway has been a student at the University of Missouri, in Columbia, majoring in education. The couple is residing in Poplar Bluff at the present time.

MISS Helyn McFatrich and Miss Lorene Naugel entertained with a breakfast Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock at the Old Missouri Homestead in honor of Mrs. Ellis R. Moore, who before her marriage Friday night was Miss Virginia Biery. A centerpiece of mixed flowers decorated the table.

Guests were Mrs. Moore, Miss Helen Biery, Mrs. Bob Salmons, Miss Rosie Heuermann, Mrs. Ruth Ann Cook, Mrs. Jean Pettis and Miss Hazel Kirkpatrick.

The hostesses presented Mrs. Moore with a gift of crystal.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Hieronymus and sons, Larry and Gary, of Sedalia, Route Five, have returned from a four weeks vacation in San Diego, Waterford and various other places in the state of California.

In San Diego, they were guests of Mrs. Hieronymus' brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Smith and daughter, Pam. While there they also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Glenn, former Sedalians, now of San Diego, Cal.

They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Vaille, of Long Beach, Calif. Mrs. Vaille is a sister of Mrs. Hieronymus.

In Waterford, Cal., they visited with another brother and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Dale L. Smith and children, Virginia Lee and Gary. A number of aunts and uncles were also visited in Waterford.

On Sunday, January 23, they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rittman and son, Tommy, of Tracy, Cal. Mr. and Mrs. Rittman are also former Sedalians.

The Pettis So-Mor club will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. P. R. Nightingale, 409 South Park avenue. A covered dish luncheon will be served promptly at noon.

Miss Dorothy Dean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dean, of the Dean apartments, has returned from Cleveland, Ohio, where she has completed a business course at a school particularly for college graduates.

Mr. and Mrs. John Quinton Fischer, who were married Wednesday, and their attendants. They are left to right: Fred Karigan, Arnold Fischer, Maurice Fischer, John Quinton Fischer, Mrs. John Quinton Fischer, Miss Trudy Kraus, Miss Mary Flamming and Miss Genevieve Sullivan. Mrs. Fischer was formerly Miss Margaret Eleanor Karingan, daughter of Mrs. Maude E. Karigan, 1403 East Twelfth street. Mr. Fischer is the son of Mrs. John Norman, of Tipton. (Photo by Lehmer)

Bass Singer To Be Guest of HGS Club

The Helen G. Steele Music Club presents Elmer Dresslar, bass singer, from the Studio of Stanley Deacon, Conservatory of Music, Kansas City, in recital Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the Heard Memorial Club House.

Elmer Dresslar

Mr. Dresslar spent four years in the Navy, during which time he sang in San Diego and New Orleans, and after being released from service entered the Conservatory of Music in Kansas City. Since that time he has done an extensive amount of singing in Kansas City and vicinity. Last year he appeared in the operas Marcia and Lucia di Lammermoor for the conservatory, and also did several other concerts on the conservatory schedule. This year he sang the leading role of a premiere performance of a Christmas oratorio by Alexander Tcherepnine.

Mr. Dressler will be graduated this spring with a Bachelor of Music degree, after working three years for it. On February 11, he will present his graduation recital in Kansas City.

Music critics have the following to say of his singing:

"Mr. Dresslar has a very pleasing, well-rounded voice."—C.B.N. K. C. Star.

"A singer of unusual insight and interpretative ability."—C. H. T., K. C. Star.

"One of the finest bass voices I have ever heard"—Hans Schweiger, Conductor, Kansas City Philharmonic Orchestra.

A luncheon will precede the program.

Mrs. E. A. Duensing, of Jefferson City, president of the Federation of Music Clubs, will attend the luncheon and program.

The entertainment committee, headed by the chairman, Mrs. D. P. Dyer, and the co-chairman, Mrs. Lawrence Barnett, has made the following plans for February and March for members of the Sedalia Country club:

Regular Sunday night suppers will be held. Family groups are especially invited. The Thursday 1:00 o'clock bridge luncheons will continue.

Saturday, February 12th, there will be a St. Valentine's Square dance with callers.

February 26th, Saturday will be a gay night, when the semi-formal Madri Gras dance is held. Cracker's Quintette from Warrensburg will play the holiday music.

The five Thursdays in March will be occupied by afternoon duplicate bridge tournaments, preceded by 1:00 o'clock luncheons. All those planning to enter the tournament are asked to contact Mrs. Dyer.

A repeat Square dance will be held at the club March 12th.

Games will be played following a Thursday night dinner March 17th, at 6:30 o'clock.

Dress for the Bowery dance Saturday night, March 26, when Lee Brandt and his orchestra will play.

Reservations for all meals should be made the preceding day before noon.

Additional members of the entertainment committee announced last Sunday are: Mrs. James A. Lay and Mrs. R. H. Ahrens, of Warsaw, Mrs. Fred Wesner, Mrs. A. R. Tause, Mrs. J. M. Drayston, Mrs. W. A. Hamilton, Jr., and Mrs. Richard R. Sklar.

Miss Juanita Lyle, Miss Dorothy Swope and Mrs. Robert Fingland entertained last Sunday with a breakfast at the Bothwell hotel, in honor of Miss Margaret Karigan, who was married Wednesday to John Quinton Fischer.

Guests were, the bride,' her mother, Mrs. Maude Karigan, Mrs. Ben Klein, Mrs. Ed Ringen, Miss Mary Jane Mullins, Mrs. I. H. Lehmer, Miss Trudy Kraus, Miss Mary Martha Windsor, Miss Julia Fischer, Miss Gene Sullivan, Miss Mary Flamming, Miss Grace Farley and Mrs. Paul Burke.

Those invited but unable to attend were Miss Bea Gentry, of Jefferson City and Mrs. Elmer Fingland.

The bride was presented with a gift of silver.

Mr and Mrs Frank Sellers and Mr and Mrs. Fred Handley, entertained Friday evening with a dessert bridge in honor of Miss Iona Green and J. E. Dowdy, who will be married soon. The party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sellers on Route 5.

The centerpiece on the dining table was a miniature bride and bridegroom encircled by flowers with white ribbon streamers from the edge of the able going to the centerpiece.

The dessert course was served on card tables centered with white candles from which were white ribbons, the ends of which were attached to little kitchen gadgets on which were the placecards. The favors were later given to the prospective bride and bridegroom.

The evening was spent in playing bridge and rummy. The award in rummy went to Miss Green and in bridge to Mrs. Thompson.

Guests were Miss Green, Mr. Dowdy, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Handley, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Longan, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cain, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Long, Miss Josephine Chipman, Mrs. Mary Dilthy, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Thompson, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Faulkner.

Miss Iona Green, who will be married this week to J. E. Dowdy, was honored recently with a dessert bridge given by Mrs. William Faulkner and her mother, Mrs. H. F. Schrankler.

Jonquils, Japanese iris and baby chrysanthemums formed the centerpiece for the table and the color scheme of yellow, green and white was carried out in the decorations.

Bridge and rummy were enjoyed during the evening with awards in bridge going to Miss Margery Chipman, Miss Iona Green and Miss Mildred Sutherlin and in rummy to Miss Georgia Sullivan.

Guests were: Miss Green, Mrs. E. W. Thompson, Mrs. Robert Cain, Mrs. Fred Handley, Mrs. Frank Sellers, Mrs. Rene' Crippen, Mrs. Ralph Dow, Jr., Mrs. Joseph Long, Mrs. Bert Hathaway, Mrs. Clyde Heynen, Miss Josephine Chipman, Miss Margery Chipman, Miss Mildred Sutherlin, Miss Georgia Sullivan and Miss Jane Meuschke.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Nunn, of Otterville, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary Sunday afternoon from 2:00 to 5:00 o'clock with open house.

The dining table was covered with white satin damask cloth centered with a three-tier wedding cake, decorated in white and gold with a miniature bride and groom. At each side were gold colored candles in crystal holders.

Mrs. Nunn was attired in a blue crepe dress and corsage of yellow rose buds. She was assisted in serving by her daughters, Mrs. Raymond Sapp and Mrs. W. B. Wallace.

Bad weather kept their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. George Nunn of St. Joseph, at home, but the daughters, Mrs. Raymond Sapp, Mr. Sapp and daughter, Miss Betty, and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wallace and William Rutledge of Jefferson City were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Nunn received many gifts and cards.

Mr. and Mrs. Nunn were married at Boonville Methodist church, January 21, 1899 by the Rev. J. W. Howell, pastor at that time. Mrs. Nunn, before her marriage, was Miss Ida May Coffman, of Pilot Grove.

Instructions On How To Make Corsages

Mrs. R. O. Powelson, of St. Joseph, past president of the Missouri Federation of Garden clubs, gave a class of instructions in corsage making Thursday at the home of Mrs. Herbert Seifert, 1701 West Eleventh street.

Representatives from all eight circles of the Sedalia Garden club, the Warsaw Garden club and the LaMonte Garden club, and a few friends of Mrs. Powelson, thirty in all, attended the class which started at 10:00 o'clock and ended at 3:00 o'clock. A luncheon was served during the noon hour.

Mrs. Powelson has been giving courses in corsage making at various places over Missouri and Kansas and is well informed on the subject. She stopped in Sedalia enroute home from St. Louis where she had been attending a school on corsage making.

All Made Corsages

Having with her a vast assortment of fresh flowers, ribbons and various materials for corsage making, she not only demonstrated how to make corsages but had those present make some, too. Surprisingly beautiful and professional looking corsages were made with just one flower and some ribbon. Each guest went home with a corsage and a number of corsages were sent to the hospital to friends who are ill. Mrs. Powelson suggests that a corsage might be sent sometimes instead of other flowers to hospital patients who might wear them, pin them on their pillows or give them to their favorite nurse.

A course on corsage making may be given in Sedalia this spring if members of the Garden club desire it.

Miss Lulu Neff, 202 South Grand avenue, who has been ill at her home the past few weeks with arthritis, Saturday observed her birthday anniversary. Relatives and friends gave her a card shower and she received many beautiful cards as well as a number of gifts.

The Meet Your Neighbor club met at the home of Mrs. J. L. Knight, Wednesday in an all-day meeting. The morning was spent quilting for the 4-H club.

Following a contributive dinner the meeting was opened with the club song, "A Song of Peace."

Each member gave a household hint in answer to roll call.

The health letter was read by Mrs. Maud Davis.

Plans were made for a party to be held at the club house February 25.

Poems were read by several members. The devotional was given by Mrs. C. S. Arnold. "George Washington," was the subject of a talk given by Mrs. Maud Davis.

The club voted to have an apron exchange for Sunshine pals in March. Following the reading of the club collect, a Valentine exchange game was enjoyed. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. L. W. De Bord March 2.

Church News

The St. Martha's Guild of the Calvary Episcopal church will meet with Mrs. Mary Johnson at the home of Mrs. G. T. Lockett, 903 South Grand avenue, at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

The Friendship class of the Fifth Street Methodist church will hold its regular monthly meeting next Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the church.

A social hour will follow the business session.

The Altar Society of Sacred Heart church opened its 1949 season of activities with a covered dish luncheon at the school cafeteria, Thursday afternoon at 1:00 o'clock. Forty-five women attended.

A business meeting followed the luncheon, with Mrs. Herbert L. Zoernig, president, presiding. Reports for the year 1948 were made by the following: Mrs. Leo Lennartz, financial secretary; Mrs. Paul Burke, treasurer; Mrs. A. B. Potts, auditor; Mrs. W. F. Whitington, chairman of spiritual bouquets; and Miss Mary Helen Mayer, in charge of the sale of religious articles.

Rev. Fr. A. J. Brunswick, C. PP. S. pastor and spiritual director made an interesting talk, after which Mrs. Leon Archias, Jr., program chairman, presented the speaker of the afternoon, Sister M. Clement, principal of Sacred Heart school. Sister Clement's talk consisted of a series of short book reviews, presented in a most interesting manner.

Mrs. Elizabeth McGurren, chairman of February activities was in charge of the group of ladies serving the luncheon.

John F. Zander, secretary of the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce, spoke Thursday afternoon before a meeting of the Women's Guild of Immanuel Evangelical and Reformed church.

In speaking on his subject, "The Needs of Our Community," Mr. Zander said that the future of Sedalia looks bright in the light of the industrial expansion program. The number of unemployed persons is less than during the same period last year. He enlisted the cooperation of housewives in informing the Chamber of Commerce of persons soliciting without cards of recommendation showing their business to be legitimate. These are issued as a public service and save residents thousands of dollars annually.

The speaker told of the United States Air Academy which if built, will compare with the West Point Military Academy and the Naval Academy at Annapolis. He spoke of the advantages of its locating in this region because of favorable climate and central location.

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. W. G. Borne', Christian Citizenship chairman.

Mrs. William Bessmer opened the meeting with a service of worship before an altar decorated to carry out the theme of God at work in the home, the church and the community.

Mrs. Elmer Maune, president, presided over the business session. Mrs. Bessmer, Spiritual Life chairman, distributed book marks containing daily Bible readings for the year. Mrs. Leonard Williams, assistant Educational chairman, reported 34 women enrolled in the reading course.

Mrs. Fred Kueck, missionary chairman, reported that half the expense of supporting the 13 Christian colleges of China is borne by the Chinese. That part of the Thank Offering devoted to pensions and relief building fund, general work and Christian Education in the denomination was explained by Mrs. Hubert Smith, Thank Offering chairman.

Mrs. Ernest Liebeil, Altar chairman, announced the choice of Freddie Doty as altar boy for February, Mrs. Richard Gray, stewardship chairman, said in her stewardship message, "The only assurance of a lasting influence upon the world comes when the material possessions of a man are used unselfishly for the building of God's Kingdom."

An Easter breakfast will be served to the choirs and confirmands by a committee of guild members. Lenten Quiet Hour will be observed Ash Wednesday, March 2, in a church service at 7:45 o'clock with women of the church in charge. Year books containing the year's programs were distributed.

Luncheon was served at 1:00 o'clock. The tables were decorated in pink and blue in baby shower motif. A large table held baby garments which were brought for assembling into layettes for shipment to Europe and Asia.

Mrs. Michael Wolfel, social service chairman, said, "What women can do if they do it in unity is evidenced by the fact that enough clothing was contributed to assemble 11 layettes and probably five more by the addition of diapers." In her service of dedication she quoted St. Paul: "We that are strong need to bear the infirmities of the weak."

The Wesley Fellowship class of the Fifth Street Methodist church held its regular monthly meeting in the church dining room Wednesday evening. The tables were decorated in the St. Valentine's motif.

A short business meeting was conducted by Siegel Woodard after dinner.

Hosts and hostesses were: Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Swearingen, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hathaway and Miss Dorothy Burford.

Circle No. 2 of the First Christian church, Mrs. A. B. Burke, chairman, will meet Thursday at 8 p. m. at the home of Mrs. C. F. Scotten, 1629 West 18th. Mrs. B. B. Bradley will be the speaker.

Circle No. 7, of the First Christian church will meet Tuesday at 2:00 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Weinrich, 709 West Fifth street. Mrs. William Dougherty, chairman. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Garnett Haggard, Mrs. Robert Longan, Mrs. Donald Trueman.

We fell in line with the suggestion of feeding the poor, starving birds during the period when earth was covered with ice.

Dry bread and what not was thrown out the back door onto the spot where the garden ground is sleeping beneath the accumulation of sleet. Big birds and little birds swooped in like a miniature Berlin airlift scene.

There was more than enough for all the birds, almost a slice of bread apiece. Watching them brought a momentary feeling of satisfaction that the poor feathered creatures were being given sustenance. Then I became disgusted. Not one of the birds was satisfied with its own piece of bread. A free-for-all pecking and chasing spectacle began. Not one bird could come nearer than three feet of another without a scrap starting. Finally two birds were left, and they were a good 15 feet apart. Yet one of them took out after the other. Other birds swooped in for quick pecks at the food, then pecks at their neighbors, then flight, then back again.

Fighting among themselves for whole hog or none the birds never gave a thought to the source of their bread supply, nor cared. Perhaps they thought cleaning out the garden bugs in the summer obligated the householder to share his bread and promote discord among them during the winter.

Temporarily the birds made me so mad I just about decided not to plant a garden this spring and let the feathered wingsters scout some place else for their summer bugs.

—O—

The last ton of the snow-white paper on which you have been reading the printed words in the Sedalia Democrat and Capital was used up February 1.

You are now reading news printed on paper which is called "standard white newsprint" although it lacks the "blue white" tone you had a taste of the past two months.

The stock we are beginning to use again is supplied by a mill up north, which on a five-year contract basis, allots us so many tons a year. They do the same with other contract customers. They estimate their annual mill production and then allow all their customers a proportionate supply.

The Democrat-Capital supply of newsprint reached a low point last November when the mill sent us the last car of our 1948 allotment and notified us they could not ship us any more until 1949 when a new allotment was set up. That meant getting newsprint from some other source before December 15 when our supply would have run out, forcing the Democrat and Capital to stop publication because of lack of newsprint.

We had plenty of offers from New York and Chicago brokers to buy what used to be called "black market" paper on which the price had been kited to newspapers desperately in need of print paper.

The Democrat and Capital preferred to buy direct from another mill which produced a higher quality newsprint even though the price was $203.00 or double the regular market price of $102.00 per ton. This mill when advised of our predicament set wheels in motion to produce our 33½-inch size on an emergency basis. The price was high but the quality of the paper was guaranteed with less spoilage likely than if we had purchased paper on the open market without assurance of its quality.

The Democrat and Capital, like so many other newspapers at the end of 1948, was in the position of buying expensive paper or going out of business.

But that ticklish period is now past and our regular mill supply for 1949 will see us through the year—we hope, although we'll have to watch our consumption pretty closely from now on.

Smith-Cotton Wins Clinton Tourney

Tigers Defeated Clinton in Overtime By Score of 46-42

Smith-Cotton Tigers, Saturday night, defeated Clinton high school in the Clinton Invitational basketball tournament to win the championship. The Tigers stopped Clinton after an up and down game which went into overtime. The score at the end of the fourth quarter was 42-42 with the Sedalians picking up four points in the overtime period to win.

In the afternoon Sedalia defeated Versailles by a score of 75 to 57 in a game in which the Tigers held a lead throughout the contest. Versailles was formerly coached by the present Tiger mentor, James "Jim" Ball.

Paced by the 16 point shooting of Bill Holst, the Tigers made up a behind score of 12 points in the third quarter. In the second quarter, the Tigers only scored three points compared to 15 tallied by Clinton.

Snyder was the big boy for Clinton, also scoring 16 points. He hit six field goals before missing a shot.

Holst made the first basket in the overtime game to break away from an even score of 42-42, and the other field goal was made by Ralph Walker who hit for a basket just as the final gun went off.

Clinton won second place and Versailles third.

Score by quarters:

Sedalia	16	19	28	42	46
Clinton	16	31	37	42	42

Knob Noster and Conway to Finals

The championship game of the Warsaw Invitational basketball tournament, sponsored by the Warsaw Lions Club, waited until the late hours of Saturday night to get underway. It began at midnight between Conway and Knob Noster and apparently was expected to be the star contest of the four day sessions.

The semi-finals played Saturday night saw the Conway aggregation defeat Napton in the opener 51 to 48 in a fairly well balanced contest. Knob Noster came through in the second game of the evening to stop Warrensburg by a score of 63 to 32.

In the play-off for the third and fourth places Warrensburg defeated Napton by a score of 61 to 44.

Friday night was the "thrill night" of the tournament with all four games being exceptionally close in scoring. Conway had it's hardest fight against Green Ridge, the game being a nip and tuck affair from the opening whistle until the final minutes, with the lead see-sawing between the teams. Conway emerged a one-point victor 51 to 50.

In the other Friday night contests Sedalia dropped out 50 to 52 to Warrensburg; Knob Noster edged out Windsor by a 48 to 46 score and Napton eliminated Clinton by a 59-55 score.

The tournament from the opening night until the finals Saturday was successful in the four nights, there being record crowds in the Community hall each night to see the games.

Kansas State Bows to M. U.

MANHATTAN, Kas., Feb. 5.—(AP)—The University of Missouri Tigers choked off a last-half Kansas State rally tonight to defeat the Wildcats 40 to 34 in a Big Seven Conference basketball game. Missouri led at the half 24 to 15.

It was a crippling glow to th defending champion Kansas State team, which suffered its fourth Big Seven loss in seven games. The victory brought Missouri's Conference record to three wins against two defeats.

With Clarence Brannum, all-conference center last winter, in their lineup for the first time this season, the Wildcats led 7-3 after the first six minutes but Missouri caught up at 8-8 midway of the period, jumped into a quick lead and was never headed.

Brannum, who re-enrolled at K-State this week after playing several weeks with a Peoria, Ill., A.A.U. team, was held to one field goal and a free point. Ed Barretts eight points was the best effort of the Wildcats against Missouri's steady defense.

Kansas State rallied briefly a couple of times in the second half and was within two points of a tie, 32-34, with seven minutes remaining.

Missouri clinched the game in the last three minutes as free throws by Pleasant Smith and Karl Pierpoint were followed by Bud Heineman's and Pierpoint's fielders.

Red Haynes, Missouri center, led the Tigers well balanced attack with four field goals for eight points.

Missouri Valley Beats Tarkio

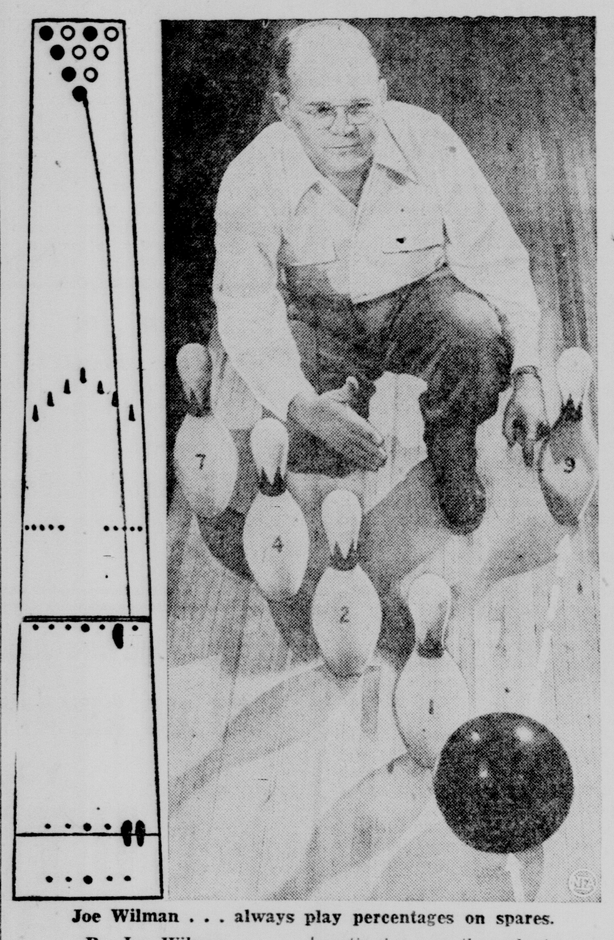

TARKIO, Mo., Feb. 5—(AP)—Cornelius Anderson garnered 34 points tonight in leading Missouri Valley college to a 74-62 victory over Tarkio in an M.C.A.U. basketball game.

Anderson hit 13 field goals and eight free throws in blistering the backboard. Bob Crabtree led Tarkio's scoring with 19 points.

The Vikings built a 43-30 halftime lead. Tarkio played the visistors on even terms in the last half, but couldn't overcome that margin.

Spare Time

Correct Way of Converting Spare Learned, Bowler Shouldn't Deviate

Joe Wilman . . . always play percentages on spares.

By Joe Wilman
Former National Match Game Champion

When the ball either fails to hook enough or has been thrown out too far, you have a 1-2-4-7-9 leave. This spare can be missed very easily, as a glance at the pin setup will show.

The safest way to play this leave is to shoot from the right hand side for the 1-3 pocket, making the ball carry the 9-pin.

If the ball is working properly it will strike the 1 on the right hand side and the 1-2-4-7 will fall like a picket fence, the ball continuing on through to carry away the 9-pin.

We gamble on making it in this fashion rather than attempting to drive the 1 into the 9-pin, because the ball is larger than the pin and therefore offers a better chance of carrying the 9-pin.

Play percentages on spares.

Percentages even up, so in the long run you will profit.

Once you have learned the correct manner of converting a spare never deviate.

The 1-2-4-7-9 conversion is open to argument, but most experts play it in the fashion I describe.

Missouri Trounces Oklahoma in Track

COLUMBIA, Mo., Feb. 5—(AP)—The University of Missouri took first place in ten of the twelve events in trouncing the University of Oklahoma 71 1-3 to 32 2-3 tonight in an indoor Big Seven Conference track meet.

New records were set in 10 events, and the old marks in the other two were tied. The old records were established in 1946 when the two teams staged their only previous indoor duel.

Oklahoma's victories went to Bill Jacobs, with a blistering 1:57.7 in the 880-yard dash, and Tommy Gray in the 60-yard dash.

Missouri's Olympic entry, Dick Ault, won the low hurdles and anchored the relay team.

Philly Eagles Get 'Smackover' Scott

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 5—(AP)—The Philadelphia Eagles today signed Clyde (Smackover) Scott as the third member of what they consider the greatest offensive trio in football.

President Jim Clark of the National Football League champions watched Scott autograph a one-year contract and then exclaimed:

"Boy, now we have it. Steve Van Buren running inside; Clyde Scott running outside and Tommy Thompson pitching through the air. They may as well give us that 1949 title now."

The Eagles declined to disclose terms of the contract given the University of Arkansas back—second nationally known grid ace signed by Philadelphia in a week. Charley (Chuck) Bednarik, University of Pennsylvania all-America center, joined the club Tuesday.

The 24-year-old Scott was all smiles as he tried on his new green number 27 jersey and posed for pictures.

"It certainly is great joining the best professional football team in the world," he said.

Johnny Sturm Signs With The Joplin Miners

JOPLIN, Mo., Feb. 5—(AP)—Johnny Sturm of St. Louis, former New York Yankee first baseman, has been signed for his second term as player-manager of the Joplin Miners of the Western Association.

Sturm, left-handed thrower and hitter, led the league in hitting last year with .360 with 163 hits, including 45 doubles, which led the circuit.

The signing of Sturm completes the managerial lineup of the W.A. for 1949.

St. Louis U. Wins In Overtime From L.I.U

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 5—(AP)—The St. Louis University Billikens rallied gamely tonight to snatch a 43-37 overtime victory from a stubborn flock of Long Island University Blackbirds before 11,000 fans.

Kansas Jayhawks Edge Out Iowa State 62-57

AMES, Ia., Feb. 5—(AP)—Kansas' Jayhawks, drawing away in the last minute, edged Iowa State 62-57 tonight for their fourth Big Seven Conference basketball victory in seven games.

Good Season Record Made By Bears

Basketball Team Has Fifteen Successive Victories This Season

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Feb. 5—(AP)— The Southwest Missouri State college Bears of Springfield will defend their perfect season record of fifteen successive victories in a couple of basketball games next week.

Coach Andy McDonald's Bears, who lead the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association standings with five victories and no defeats, will meet the Rolla School of Mines, a league member, Tuesday, and Pittsburg Kas) State Thursday, both at home.

Good Defensive Average

Boasting one of the better defensive averages in the nation, Springfield has limited its first fifteen opponents to 36.1 points per evening. The National Collegiate Athletic Bureau, reporting on games through Jan. 29, showed Springfield leading the small college teams of the nation in defense. For thirteen games, the Bears had allowed its opponents an average of 35.8 points. The average for fifteen games stands at 36.1 points.

Not a high scoring outfit, the Bears have averaged 48 points in fifteen games and claim a pair of excellent shotmakers in forwards Gene Ruble and Preston Ward, both veterans. Ruble has averaged 14.8 points in 15 games, and Ward who doubles as first baseman for the Brooklyn Dodgers has averaged 13.2 points.

A member of the National Association of Intercollegiate Basketball, Springfield hopes to show its class on a national basis in the NAIB tournament at Kansas City next month.

California Poly Second

The Collegiate Bureau showed California Poly second to Springfield in defense with an average of 41.5 points in 14 games through Jan. 29.

Capital University of Ohio is number 1 in team offense with a 77.9 average in nine games.

Gene King of Morris Harvey college, W. Va., retained his individual scoring leadership, boosting his average to 27.5 points for 13 games.

Thus far Springfield has defeated Baker (Kas) University, the independent Powell Sports of Kansas City, Northeast (Okla) State, Central (Okla) State (2), Simpson (Ia) College, Wayne (Neb) State, James Milliken University, Washburn Kas) University, Central (Mo) State (2), Pittsburgh Kas) State, Northeast (Mo) Teachers (2), and Northwest (Mo) Teachers.

Ohio State Upset Minnesota 48 to 39

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 5—(AP)—Ohio State's basketball team upset Minnesota, Big Nine leaders, 48 to 39 points. It was the fourth victory for the Bucks in seven starts in Conference play, and the second defeat for Minnesota against six wins.

Machinists Hold To Bowling Lead

At the end of the 20th week of play in the Missouri Pacific Bowling league the Machinists are leading the race with 43 wins and 17 lost for a percentage of .716, a lead of two games over the wheel shop who have 41 games won and 19 lost for percentage of .683. One of the highlights of the play last week was that the Apprentice Club No. 1 and the Apprentice Club No. 2 each won three games. For the first time this season the Apprentice Club No. 2 climbed out of the cellar position.

Schoendienst And Seven Others Sign

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 5—(AP)—Second Baseman Al (Red) Schoendienst and seven others have signed their 1949 contracts with the St. Louis Cardinals, club president Fred M. Saigh, Jr., announced Friday.

Signed contracts were received in today's mail from Coach Tony Kaufmann, outfielder Hal Rice and pitcher Al Papai. All of them were with the club at least part of last year.

Others whose contracts came in include Larry Ciafone, pitchers Robert Habenicht and John Yuhas, and infielder Glenn Nelson, all with Minor league teams in 1948.

The Cards previously had announced the signing of Stan Musial, Enos Slaughter and Harry Brecheen.

Asked what progress he was making in lining up the 1949 squad, Saigh said "things are coming along nicely."

Mangrum Holds Lead in Tucson Open

Has a Two-Stroke Lead at the End of The Third Round

TUCSON, Artz., Feb. 5—(AP)—Lloyd Mangrum, Chicago, Ill., "salvaged" a 68 from what he called a "bad" round of golf, to hang on to a two-stroke lead over the field today at the end of the third round in the $10,000 Tucson open with a record 12-under par 198.

In posting his third straight sub-par round over the par 70, level 6,500-yard El Rio Country Club course, the ex-GI out of Los Angeles shattered a record for 54 holes of 199 strokes. This mark twice had been fired by Jimmy Demaret, Ojai, Calif., and tied last year by South Africa's Bobby Locke.

Riegel Tied For Second

Skee Riegel, the Tulsa, Okla., amateur who had tied Mangrum at the halfway mark with 130s yesterday, scrambled for a par 70 and a two-way tie for second place at an even 200 with Al Smith, a comparative unknown out of Winston-Salem, N. C., who had a five-under par 65. Smith never has won a major tournament, but he has twice won the Gainesville, Fla., open.

Amateur Frank Stranahan, Toledo, O., strong boy, fired a 69 today to stay close to the leaders with 201. He was tied for third place with Eric Monti, Santa Monica, Calif.

Boyish Fred Hawkins, Antioch, Ill., who held third place to himself yesterday, had a bad first nine today but rallied on the home stretch to finish with a one-over par 71 for a 202 mark. He was tied with Lew Worsham, Oakmount, Pa., and Johnny Bulla, Pittsburgh.

Although spectators might have seen little, if anything, wrong with Mangrum's game, the unofficial money champ of the 1948 pro circuit crumbled.

Shot Par Game Saturday

"I certainly shot a poor game today," he said. "If you can shoot a 68 and still play lousy golf, I should be happy though."

Mangrum muffed a five-foot putt for a birdie on the 18th.

Riegel scrambled all over the course and like Mangrum missed an easy three-footer on the 18th apron that would have meant a birdie.

Demaret, the California fashion plate and the pre-tournament favorite to win, moved up from an 18th place tie to a four-way tie for ninth with a 203. Grouped with him were Clayton Haefner, Charlotte, N. C., the veteran Toney Penna, Cincinnati, O., and Jim Turnesa, Elmsford, N. Y.

Horton Smith Fades

Horton Smith, Detroit, who started out as a strong contender with a 36-hole total of 135, faded today. He blew to a 77 and a total of 212.

Skip Alexander the Tucson open defending champion from Southern Pines, N. C., appeared likely to finish out of the money, his 54-hole total of 212 is two over par.

As usual, the day's big thrill was provided by Sam Snead's booming drive. He over-drove the 320-yard fifth hole by 15 yards.

College Swimming Meets Are Held

BOULDER, Colo., Feb. 5—(AP)—The Iowa State Wildcats won six out of nine events to defeat Colorado 58-26 in a Big Seven swimming meet today.

Colorado set new school records in the only three events it won—the 300-yard medley relay, the 150-yard back stroke and the 200-yard breast stroke.

Sooners Defeat SMU

DALLAS, Tex., Feb. 5—(AP)—A strong Okla. University swimming team added Southern Methodist to its list of Southwest Conference victims here today 40-35. OU had previously defeated A and M and Baylor.

Don Mortimore and Mike Muckelroy of SMU took meet honors, however, with a pair of victories each. Muckleroy won the 220-yard free style and the 440-yard free style, nosing out OU's Jerry Drichorst and Wayne Clegern in each event.

Mortimore won both short free style events, taking the 100-yard free style and a shorter event covering two lengths of the SMU pool.

Southern Methodist won the 16-length free style relay and Oklahoma the 12-length medley relay. OU piled up its winning margin by taking most of the second third places.

Sport Scraps

By D. KELLY SCRUTON

THE Pettis County Conservation organization deserves much credit in their efforts in feeding hungry quail the first of the month. I am wondering just how many bird hunters appreciate the humanitarian sportsmen who went out of their way, took their own time to see that feed was scattered over the county in locations where hundreds, yes thousands of quail might have starved if it had not been for this emergency feeding.

Carl Wollett, head of the Pettis County organization supervised the work. But he had much cooperation on the part of others, even down to the point of using airplanes to fly over locations which could not have been reached by automobile. Automobiles were also used, but it was the airplane through the courtesy of Jack Funk's flying service that made it possible with several of his students and pilots who had received training in his school, piloting the planes.

Mr. Wollett informed me that more than 1200 pounds of feed had been dropped or placed for feeding. Feed was furnished by the System Mills through Henry Blaine, and Bennie Steeples of the Square Deal Produce Co., and also a quantity through the State Conservation Commission, added to what was purchased by the local organization.

"There is still bad weather ahead," Mr. Wollett said, "and if it is as bad as what we had we will be out again to scatter feed to the quail. If there are any conditions still existing where quail need feeding, I would appreciate anyone knowing of this to contact me. We intend to bring together the Pettis County organization again and resume where the good work was left off some years ago," Mr. Wollett concluded.

The Pettis County Club is deserving of a large membership. When I stop to think of all the hunting and fishing licenses issued through the office of County Clerk James H. Green, I wonder why each and every license holder has failed to contact and become a member of the county organization.

EFFORTS of several sportsmen in the past several years to get the organization to function as a group seemed to fail. Only a few sportsmen seemed to take any interest, while on the other hand there are several hundred sportsmen and women too, who will scream the loudest if anything should happen that would curtail this outdoor sport.

Working together and giving a helping hand to the Club in its local activity which in turn does much to assist the state-wide program, can make it possible for hunting, fishing and trapping to be continued. Cooperation is necessary.

I see no reason why a select few are willing to give their time and money too so that others can enjoy the sport. I have noticed that the ones who do the most fishing and kill the most birds are most inactive when their help could be of good use.

Get together, join the local Conservation Club, and then join in their conferences as to what is good and what is not good in our sports program. Only roundtable discussions can be of a benefit—lone griping does not help to solve a problem.

If you are interested then contact Mr. Wollett.

IT was interesting to read in the Democrat-Capital the sports column as written by James Harms, but personally I can't see why he didn't keep up the good work. Maybe a change in ideas would be a big help in this column from time to time. Jim did a nice job and I appreciate his help.

ONLY a few weeks are left before baseball will become the topic of Sedalia, and rumors have it the Ban Johnson aggregation sponsored by Cal Rodgers is already getting prepared for 1949. Sedalia is wideopen for good baseball like we had last season and there is no reason why all the problems cannot be worked out to the satisfaction of all.

Get together now fellows and get these problems ironed out and not wait until baseball season is upon us before you start fussing over dates.

Olympia Races To Easy Victory

By Bob Myers

ARCADIA, Calif., Feb. 5—(AP)—The favored Olympia raced to an easy victory in the $50,000 San Felipe stakes at Santa Anita Park today, crushing 17 rival three year olds in a seven furlong attraction before 45,000 fans.

Establishing himself as the colt to beat in the $100,000 Santa Anita derby Feb. 19, Olympia made a show of the field with a five length triumph, wire to wire, over Hayseed, with Admiral Lea two and a quarter lengths behind in third place. Jockey Willie Garner was aboard Olympia.

Owned by Fred W. Hooper

Olympia is owned by Fred W. Hooper of Montgomery, Ala., who pocketed $51,000 net from the gross purse of $75,550.

Ocean Drive, Olympia's stablemate, with Eddie Arcaro aboard, started from the seventeenths post position. He never threatened and finished fifth, just behind Mrs. John D. Hertz' So La Ci.

The heavily favored entry paid $4.10, $2.70 and 12.50. Hayseed paid $6.90 and $5.20 and Admiral Lea $7.10.

Jockey Is Unseated

The King Ranch's Swap Out, trailing in the crowded pack, unseated Jockey Dave Gorman as they headed into the stretch. Gorman was taken to the track hospital where attendants said he was not seriously hurt.

The order of finish behind the first five was Top Turret, Audacious Man, Elbutter, Old Rockport, Benevenuto, Danherst, Star Fiddle, Twin Pipes, Duplicator, Yes You, Final Cal, Firoling and the riderless Swap Out.

Joe DiMaggio Hasn't Signed Contract Yet

NEW YORK, Feb. 5—(AP)—The New York Yankees announced today that Joe DiMaggio had not signed his 1949 contract, despite a second conference between the star outfielder and club officials here late last night.

DiMaggio failed to reach an agreement with the Yankees ten days ago. Today's announcement said a third conference was scheduled here at 11 a.m. Monday.

The Yankee ace, who led the American league in home runs and runs batted in last season, is reported to be dissatisfied with an offer that would base a portion of his salary on attendance figures.

Sedalia Team Will be Honored Dinner Guests

The Sedalia basketball team, their guests and coaches will be honored guests at a dinner party at the Pacific Cafe this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Sponsors of the team, Cramer-Schrader and Pacific Cafe are furnishing the dinner.

This dinner is being given in recognition of the team winning the M.I.B.C. tournament in Sedalia, and will soon play in the national tournament at Springfield, Mo., in mid-March.

Ollie Vanek To Scout For St. Louis Cardinals

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 5—(AP)—Ollie Vanek, manager of the Omaha, Neb., Western league club, has been named full-time scout for the St. Louis Cardinals, it was announced today.

Vanek, 35, was manager of the Omaha Cardinals the past two years.

Sedalia Loses To Warrensburg

The Sedalia basketball team, winners of the M.I.B.C. tournament held in Sedalia last January, were subdued by Warrensburg in the Warsaw tournament, Friday night, and were eliminated.

In the first round of the four-day tournament which ended Saturday night, Sedalia defeated Holden 49-41, Wednesday night, but suffered a close defeat of 52-50 in the Warrensburg-Sedalia round, Friday night.

Sedalia led Warrensburg in the first quarter by nine points, and at the closing first half Sedalia was trailing by two points. During the final half of play, both teams exchanged scores of being in the lead by two points, but when the final whistle blew, Sedalia was the under team.

Saturday night, Napton, Conway, Warrensburg, and Windsor moved up to the semi-finals, and winners played off for championship.

The Sedalia team is sponsored by Cramer-Schrader Construction Company, and Pacific Cafe, and is managed by Charles Thompson.

Time: 8:30 p.m. Wednesday.
Place: National Guard Armory.
Referee: Sammy Feeback.

Wrestling under the sponsorship of Pettis County Post No. 16, American Legion, will be resumed, Wednesday night, after two weeks of postponement due to weather conditions. A top-notch schedule has been arranged by Promoter Gust Karras for an evening entertainment of wrestling. The opening event will begin promptly at 8:30 o'clock.

Real Main Event

Bob "Bulldog" Wagner, Buffalo, N. Y., has been secured to meet one of Sedalia's favorites in Bobby Bruns, the wrestling sailor from Chicago. Wagner, one of the roughest men in the game today, will make the fans forget all about Roy Graham, the Dallas cowboy. He hails from Buffalo, N. Y., but most recent from Portland ,Ore., where he was a sensation on the Western coast. Wagner tips the scales at 240 pounds.

In the semi-windup event Leo Newman who has appeared here many times has been matched against a new comer in Sedalia in "Lucky" Sumonovich, champion from Hawaii Islands. Newman recently defeated Lord Albert in Montana for the Northwestern championship.

Phantom Is Coming

The Phantom, who hasn't given any address as yet, but who will be checked carefully by the Missouri Athletic Commission when he arrives for his match in the opening event meets Ken Kenneth of Australia. Kenneth recently arrived from his homeland and is anxious to make a name for himself in the States to gain "top spots" on the wrestling cards. The Phantom has started a campaign in the Midwest to force a title match with Orville Brown for the heavyweight title.

Sammy Feeback will be back to take over the refereeing.

Larry Doby Signs Cleveland Contract

CLEVELAND, Feb. 5—(AP)—Centerfielde Larry Doby signed his 1949 contract after seeing Bill Veeck in New York, the Cleveland Indians' front office announced today.

While the Indians' prexy is on his current eastern trip he is expected to talk contract terms with Bob Feller, also in New York, and negotiate with Sam Zoldak, of Brooklyn, and catcher Jim Hegan of Lynn, Mass.

Business Manager Rudie Schaffer also reported that Frank Papish, a hurler acquired from the Chicago White Cox last month, had sent in his signed contract.

National IBAA At Springfield

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Feb. 5—(AP) — The Lions Club-sponsored Independent Basketball Association of America IBAA tournament will be played at Springfield high gymnasium here Mar. 21-26. Fifty percent of the gross gate receipts will go to participating teams.

Nebraska Beats Kansas in Track

LINCOLN, Neb. Feb. 5—(AP)—Nebraska won its third straight Big Seven Conference indoor track victory today, defeating Kansas 79½ to 24½.

Three records were tied in the dual meet and two were shattered.

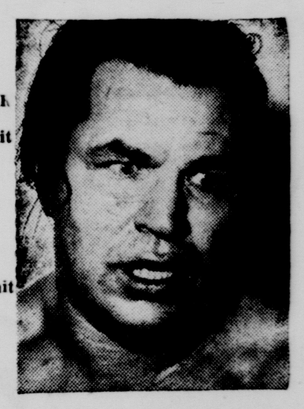

Pat Bowers of Kansas set a new record in the 880 yard run by covering the distance in 1:57.8. Nebraska's mile relay team, composed of Bill Hein Fritz Ware, Don Bollertsen and Harry Meginnis, established a new meet record of 3:29.8.

There's Fun Galore At New Orleans Mardi Gras

By Kris Kreeger

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 5—(AP)—Elves, pirates and crusaders, characters from Shakespeare, Grimm and Mother Goose, marionettes and Eskimos and men from Mars, are dancing the nights away with this city's lovely ladies.

It will go on that way almost every evening 'till the clock strikes midnight on Shrove Tuesday, March 1, signaling the end of Mardi Gras and the start of Lent.

'Til then, the Municipal auditorium is transformed into Sherwood forest, ancient Babylon, Santa Claus' workshop or anything else fantasy can create.

A record number of 60 revels has been booked for the carnival season this year. Sometimes two affairs are presented at once, on opposite sides of a huge partition.

The casual visitor—and the average New Orleans resident, for that matter—never sees what goes on at these affairs. Admittance is by invitation only.

No Ball Like It

The carnival doesn't become a public spectacle until the street parades begin, about ten days before the wild climax of Mardi Gras day.

But those invited to the secret nightly merrymaking see spectacles of strictly native strain. No other kind of masquerade, dance or festival is quite like a New Orleans Mardi Gras ball.

The typical ball is presented by an organization of 200 to 300 men, with an exclusive and secret membership. Theoretically only the captain," a sort of permanent general manager, knows the identity of all members.

The outfits take exotic titles such as "Krewe of Eros" and "Krewe of Hermes." It's almost always a "krewe" of some kind, and names of Greek and Egyptian divinities are popular in the titles.

Members Pay Dues

Members pay dues which might be $200 to $1,000, all of which goes into the presentation of this one annual ball. The fee may be higher if the organization stages a street parade.

Every ball has a theme from story, fiction or fancy. The auditorium is decorated accordingly, and members of the krewe wear costumes in keeping with the subject.

Only the krewe members are masked and in costume, but sometimes the queen and her maids are dressed according to the theme. At other times the ladies of the court wear evening gowns, although her majesty might have a dress costing papa plenty hundreds of dollars.

The queen always has a tiara, scepter and elaborate train. The court in general is usually more resplendent than anything normally seen at Windsor. The king's scepter may have diamonds the size of glass doorknobs, and of the same material.

Royalty Secretly Chosen

The female royalty is chosen by secret process which varies from one organization to another. There is never anything like a beauty or popularity contest for the honor.

Among the older krewes, and those identified with the high society, the queen and maids are taken from the current debutante crop. A few organizations select older women, mostly the wives of krewemen.

Until midnight, the only persons allowed to dance are the krewe members and a group of women who have received special "call-out" invitations. These women are seated on the main floor of the auditorium, and wear regular evening clothes.

Other guests remain in the balcony. They may go down and dance after the royal court departs for the queen's supper at midnight.

Tableau Emphasis Theme

Unless the ball is preceded by a street parade, it opens with a tableau emphasizing the theme. For example, the theme might be "Haroun Al Raschid receives tribute from his vassal monarchs."

The auditorium will be transformed into a Hollywood set of an oriental palace. Krewe members will be dressed in bright-colored eastern costume. Haroun will be on his throne, and in the tableau the vassals will cart in chests of imitation jewels representing enough wealth to pay off next year's national defense budget.

Then comes the dancing, which is strictly by "call-out." Before each dance, every kreweman grabs a member of the floor committee—men in full dress, wearing white carnations — and gives him the name of a lady in the call-out seats.

The committeeman stands in front of the seats and shouts her name. When she responds, he escorts her to her partner, who returns her to the seat after the dance. The process of calling out takes more time than the actual dancing.

"Guess Who?"

Theoretically, the lady never knows with whom she dances. The first call-out, however, is reserved for sweethearts and wives, and unless the voice behind the mask is familiar, there is some explaining to be done later. The other dances are spiced with the game of "guess who?"

A few organizations, most of them relatively new, are composed of women instead of men. These reverse the usual procedure. Only the women members are masked and costumed. They call out their chosen male partners, who appear in tuxedos or full dress.

But visitors who expect to see any of this must have a friend in one of the Mardi Gras krewes, or know someone who has. There's no box office at a Mardi Gras ball.

Postal Clerks, Auxiliary Met

The Sedalia Post Office Clerks and Auxiliary held their January meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hackler of 1104 East Tenth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Zink were special guests, Mr. Zink having recently received his appointment to the Post Office.

Refreshments were served after the meeting and the remainder of the evening was spent in conversation and playing cards.

Members present were: Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Warbritton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Arnest, Mrs. Vic McFadden, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Glyndon Curnutt and Mr. and Mrs. Hackler and Stadonna and Harold Lynford.

The February meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Gray, Jr.

Hughesville Club Meeting

The Hughesville Woman's Extension Club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Dwight Lowrey with Mrs. Clinton Lowrey and Mrs. Wm. Wheeler as assistant hostesses at a covered dish luncheon.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Clinton Lowrey, by singing the club song. The devotional and prayer were given by Mrs. Wm. Binkley.

Visitors present were: Miss Esther Dilsaver, of Sedalia; Diana Thomason, Harold Williams, Michael and Sherry Hoos.

Members present were: Mrs. Dwight Lowrey, Mrs. Clinton Lowrey, Mrs. Homer Cunningham, Mrs. Bill Binkley, Mrs. Will Fowler, Mrs. Harold Conway, Mrs. Walter Smith, Mrs. Henry Nagle, Mrs. Raymond Nagle, Mrs. Fred Hoose, Mrs. Edwin Williams, Mrs. Clarence Thomason, Mrs. Charles Rages, Mrs. William Wheeler, Mrs. H. Tevebaugh.

A review of County Council meetings held in Sedalia last week was made by Mrs. Clinton Lowrey. Acknowledgment of money sent to the scholarship fund was made by the chairman of committee on Missouri Homemakers Student Loan Fund, Julia Rockeford. Miss Dilsaver gave an illustrated talk on undulent fever. The health leader, Mrs. Tevebaugh, was in charge of the health program.

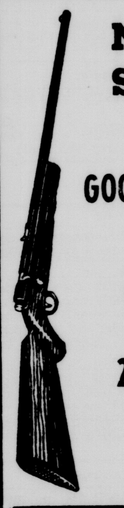

A game, Arrow on the Heart, was led by Mrs. Walter Smith, with Mrs. Will Fowler as award winner. The March meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Clarence Thomason, with Mrs. C. N. Richardson and Mrs. Will Fowler as assistant hostesses.

Switch Sites

Coyotes choose special places to meet and yelp their weird songs after nightfall, but they never use the same meeting ground two nights in succession.

Reports Thefts From Autos

Five Ransacked on Thursday Night Owners Assert

Thievishness was reported by five persons Thursday between 5:30 and 10:20 o'clock, after they went to their parked automobiles in the downtown area and learned they were missing items such as groceries, clothing, and minor articles.

Grover Kabler, 412 East Saline street, was picked up by police at 9:00 p. m. and on his person, he had wrenches, which were identified by an owner who previously called police reporting them stolen, the police say.

In police court this morning, Kabler pleaded guilty to petit larceny in connection with ransacking four cars. Judge Harry O. Berry after accepting the guilty plea, fined Kabler $25 on each count. Unable to pay, Kabler was committed to the city jail.

The first to report their automobile ransacked were Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Downs, Route 1, Sedalia at 6:30 o'clock. A box of groceries, nylon hose, and many other clothing articles were reported stolen. They told police their car was parked on West Main street in the 100 block, and Mrs. Downs reported the robbery occurred between 5:30 and 6:00 p. m The stolen articles were not missing until after the couple nearly reached their farm house when Mr Downs asked his wife if she purchased any groceries. She told him they were in the back seat. Then he looked and realized groceries and all were missing.

Broke Glass Windows

Fred Sisemore had his car parked in the 400 block on West Main street. He reported at 7:55 o'clock, window broken out of his car, but only minor things missing.

Donald Spencer reported to police shortly after, that some one stole a socket wrench set and minor articles from his automobile which was parked in the 100 block on east Main street. Spencer identified the wrench and sockets taken from Kabler as his property, according to police.

Mrs. L. R. Bailey 500 South Carr avenue got off work at 10 p. m. At 10:15 o'clock she was at the police station reporting sun glasses, and a flash light were stolen from her car which was parked in front of the Main street drug store where she is employed.

The above four cars Kabler admitted he ransacked. A fifth car, that of Mrs. Charles Hamby, Kabler denied he had been in it.

Mrs. Charles Hamby, 629 East Ninth street, who was the last to report stolen articles from automobiles, asserted that her car was looted in the interval of five minutes, while parked on Ohio avenue, and while she was inside a store. She told police her glasses and moneyless purse were missing.

Candy Company Is Sued For $85,000

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Feb. 5—(AP)—More than 230 employes of the Chase Candy Co. Friday filed suit for $85,000 against the concern, alleging the factory here was closed recently without compliance with a contract with the independent labor union of which they are members.

The petition said the company failed to pay the plaintiffs for earned vacation time for the calendar years 1948 and 1949 and also did not give a 60-day notice in terminating the contract.

The Nicest Distance Between Two Points

White sidewall tires available at additional cost.

To ride in a Cadillac is to experience the supreme satisfaction that can be derived from personal transportation. The person at the wheel is the quickest to sense this—for he is the special beneficiary of Cadillac comfort. He enjoys, of course—in common with the other occupants of the car—the matchless benefits of Cadillac balance and springing and roadability. But he enjoys, in addition, the driving ease of a feather-light steering wheel; a quick, powerful, responsive motor that knows no counterpart for agility and smoothness; big, dominant brakes that are as soft to the pedal as sponge rubber; and an over-all sure-footedness on the highway that reduces driving strain to the minimum. Somebody has said that, once you have driven a Cadillac, you're unhappy at the wheel of any other car. Certain it is that a ride in a Cadillac—whether as driver or passenger—is the nicest distance between two points! Have you driven a 1949 Cadillac—or ridden in one? If not, you ought to do so. You are welcome in our showrooms at any time.

Early American Style Home

Finding in a magazine just the type home she would like to have, Mrs. A. A. Ferguson showed the picture, with the plans, to her husband and daughter, Miss Margaret Ferguson. The family owned several lots on the northwest corner of Seventh street and Beacon avenue on which they had planned to build. This East Coast Connecticut style home was a copy of one of the first houses built in America and was painted barn red with white trim, which was the only color used in the early days.

The Fergusons decided to build just such a home and so they did. The house was completed last week and the family has already moved from their home at 1413 South Carr avenue to their new home which is a modern version of the early American style.

Gay Wallpaper

A breezeway between the garage and the house leads into the dining room which is gay with a rose patterned wallpaper in deep pink shades.

The walls of the home are of sheet rock and are not plastered. This type of wall it is said will not crack. There are two large bedrooms downstairs, each with double closets. In the hallway are a broom closet and a linen closet. A clothes shoot may be used either from the bathroom or the hallway.

In the spacious living room is a white fire place on the north side. There are two large windows in front which is on the south side of the room and a double window on the east side of the room. The paper is a silvery gray.

The kitchen is in yellow with light oak cabinets on two sides of the room which were built by Fred Weikal who also did other carpenter work about the house.

Faces on Seventh Street

The stairway goes up from the front hall and on the second floor is a guest room and hobby room. On the west side of the house is a huge storage room and along the hall is a large cedar closet.

The guest room on the east side also has a closet and there is a door that leads to another storage room.

The windows of the house have springs for opening and the woodwork has metal trim. In the summer the home may be cooled with an attic fan.

The large basement is divided into two rooms, a furnace room in which is a gas furnace for heating and a laundry.

The house faces on Seventh street.

AFL Approves Labor Bill

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 4—(AP)—The American Federation of Labor today gave its complete endorsement to the administration's labor bill in Congress, including the disputed emergency strike section.

William Green AFL president, said the AFL's 13-member executive council felt the bill's lack of specific authority to obtain court injunctions to stop national emergency labor strikes would work out all right.

"After going over the bill in detail with our attorneys," Green told reporters, "the council unanimously decided to accept the measure."

Asked if the council had any reservations to its approval, Green answered "no."

He said he expects to give the AFL's endorsement of the administration's Taft-Hartley law repeal legislation to the Senate labor committee next Thursday. He said he would ask a few minor changes in wording.

Its lack of specific government power to obtain emergency strike injunctions has been criticized by Senator Taft (R-Ohio) and others. President Truman and Attorney General Tom Clark have said they believed the President can seek such an injunction under inherent constitutional powers, without particular congressional sanction.

"That is a matter for the courts to determine, I don't know," Green said. "I don't think the supreme court ever has ruled on whether the President can obtain a court injunction to stop a labor emergency."

PTA Observes Founders' Day With Program

Held Wednesday Evening at Washington School

The superintendent, principals and teachers of the Sedalia schools were honored at the Founders' Day Observance by the Sedalia Council of Parent-Teacher Associations which was held at Washington school on Wednesday evening.

Guest speaker for the evening was Mrs. Herman Engle of Springfield, first vice president of the Missouri Congress of Parents and Teachers, and editor and business manager of the Missouri Parent-Teacher, official publication of the Missouri Congress. Mrs. Engle, in her charming manner, gave a brief history of the organization of the National Congress of Mothers in Washington, D. C., in February, 1897, and told of its growth and development into the National Congress of Parents and Teachers. She spoke on the need of complete cooperation between the home and school to secure better schools and adequate finances to bring Missouri schools up to the general average in the United States.

Musical Program

Preceding the speaker an enjoyable musical program was presented by Miss Dorothy Ann Reed, pianist, Miss Patricia Opp, flutist, and James Dittmer, baritone soloist.

Mrs. John Loague, president of the Sedalia Council, introduced the presidents of the parent-teacher associations in Sedalia, who in turn introduced the teachers present from their school. Past presidents of the Sedalia Council were introduced, and those present were Mrs. Herman Rapp, Mrs. P. R. Burford, Mrs. M. E. Green, Mrs. C. E. Van Horn, Mrs Lloyd Kirkpatrick.

Mrs. M. E. Green, Founders' Day chairman, introduced the state chairman of publicity, Mrs. Wilford C. Lee, and Mrs. Verney Engholm, president of the Sedalia District, Mrs. P. R. Burford, past sixth vice president of the Missouri Congress, and Mrs. Engle.

A social hour in charge of Mrs. J. W. Starke, was enjoyed at the close of the meeting. The parent-teacher colors of blue and gold were carried out in the floral decorations and the candles on the lace covered tea table, and cake and coffee, mints and nuts were served to the large group attending. Mrs. Starke was assisted in serving by members of the Washington PTA and Founders' Day chairmen from the various parent-teacher units in Sedalia.

Mrs. Hamilton Improving

Mrs. E. C. Hamilton, former Sedalian, who fell in her home in Columbia this past week fracturing her hip, is convalescing satisfactorily in the Boone county hospital in Columbia.

Charged

Mrs. Mollie Mathers (above) has been charged with first degree murder at Maryville, Mo., in connection with the death of her husband. Prosecutor Emmett L. Bartram said the 63-year-old farm woman of near Hopkins, Mo., signed a statement that she thought she was beating a man attempting to take her husband to an asylum. (Associated Press Photo)

The United States, with only 6 per cent of the world's land area, produces 60 per cent of the world's wheat.

Greer Grocery Store Robbed, Youth is Held

The Greer Grocery, 1920 South Grand avenue, was broken into about 5:00 o'clock Saturday morning and robbed of several cartons of cigarettes, a box of .410 shotgun shells, some candy, tobacco and cigars and money estimated at between $60 and $100. The robbery was discovered about 8:00 o'clock Saturday morning and a report made to the police.

Police officers investigating the robbery discovered tracks leading from the store and followed them through a field to Missouri-Kansas-Texas railroad tracks, then down the tracks to Harrison avenue, thence through another field and to Twenty-Fourth street and Harrison avenue, where they lost the tracks. Police rounded up several boys and took them to police headquarters for questioning.

Statement Given

Late Saturday afternoon Paul Whiteman, aged 24, 623 West Twenty-fourth street, was picked up for investigation in connection with the burglary of the store and questioned. Whiteman gave a statement to the police and told them where part of the money taken from the store building could be found and $46 in currency was recovered in an outbuilding at his home. Also recovered were five packages of cigarettes according to the police.

Whiteman is being detained in the county jail pending further investigation. No charges have been filed against him as yet.

Entrance to the store was gained by knocking a hole in the side of the building through which the person crawled. The cash register was pried open with a screw driver and the money taken. The robber then departed through the hole in the side of the building.

X-Ray Machine Moves Into Cooper County

The Chest X-Ray Survey for Cooper county will be in Otterville at the Otterville high school Monday from 9:00 o'clock in the morning until 4:00 o'clock that afternoon. The mobile unit will be in the Boonville high school February 8th and February 9th. A small fee for adults and young people will be made. Should a report call for a second film the Cooper County T. B. association will pay the expense of the second film.

Annual Soils And Crops Conference

Committee Named, Delegates Are Appointed

The committee in charge of the 25th Annual Soils and Crops Conference (formerly called Clover and Prosperity Conference) has selected and appointed the delegates to the Conference to be held on February 11, in the Armory in Sedalia.

This committee consists of G. L. Haggard, chairman, James A. Harvey, vice-chairman; Bruce Claycomb, secretary, and Gene Helman, registrar.

The committee has attempted to select 2 delegates from each original school district in order to have a good coverage over the county. In consolidated school districts this has not done too well. In addition to the two delegates in each school district some delegates at large have been appointed.

The program for this 25th annual conference promises to be of such great interest that the committee urges every delegate to attend if possible. If such delegate cannot attend it is hoped he will get a substitute to represent his district.

The delegates appointed are:

Thrifty Shop Formally Opened Friday

The Thrifty Dress Shop, 120 South Ohio avenue, which has been completely remodeled, had its formal opening Friday.

With the exception of one strip of wall on one side in the front of the store which is papered in an ornamental grass pattern of rose, green and yellow, the entire store is painted in pastel shades of rose, green and yellow. The wood work is of very light color of Australian wood. Four large shadow boxes above the dress cases are each a different shade of pastel against which the various colored dresses, suits and coats on display show to the best advantage. There are two large triple mirrors, three single mirrors and draperies at the doors are in shades blending with the walls. The seven dressing rooms are in the different pastel shades of the walls.

Acoustic Ceiling

The most outstanding feature of the store is the acoustic ceiling of white in which are 15 spot lights. In the center are two long ceiling pits of pastel rose each with four daylight fluorescent lights with 640 volts, each giving a very unusual and beautiful effect. The electrical contractor was Simon Mangel, of New York City.

Cases for suits, dresses and coats are along the north wall and half way back along the south wall. The front half of the south wall is the lingerie and hosiery department. The back room has been made into an office and work room. The entire floor is covered with linoleum in shades of tan and brown.

The architect for the remodeling was Mack Siegel, of New York.

Here For Opening

B. Fineman, of New York, dress buyer for the Thrifty company, arrived today for the opening. Here also for the opening were Mrs. Alice Yankee, supervisor for this territory, whose home is in this city, and Mrs. Vivian Nichols, of the Jefferson City Thrifty shop, who is a former Sedalian. Mrs. A. L. Wilson is manager of the Sedalia store. Other employes are Mrs. Rose Avansino, Mrs. Elmer Pfeifer and Mrs. John Orth, with extra employes Mrs. Lon Klink, Mrs. John Adams and Mrs. Delmer Napier.

Find Body of Child Fiendishly Stabbed

ALIQUIPPA, Pa., Feb. 5—(AP)—The fiendishly stabbed body of pretty 15-year-old Margaret Bankowski, missing from her nearby Ambridge home since Jan. 26, was found late Friday on a dump pile near here.

The dump is just across the Ohio river from Ambridge. The communities are 15 miles northwest of Pittsburgh

Margaret, a high school sophomore, was last seen the evening of Wednesday, Jan 26, when she left home to visit a school friend

Good News For Folks Who Suffer From
- STOMACH GAS
- SOUR FOOD TASTE
- ACID INDIGESTION

Do you feel bloated and miserable after every meal, taste sour, bitter food? If so, here is how you may get blessed relief from this nervous distress.

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with overdoses of soda and other alkalizers to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

900 Operators Sign Triple-A '49 Farm Plan

Government Aid Offered Ten Farm Building Practices

During the month of January nearly 800 Pettis county farm owners and operators have contacted their Triple-A township committeemen and the county committee to sign 1949 Farm Plans declaring their intention to participate in the 1949 Farm Program and request an allotment of funds be established for their farm to assist in the carrying out of indicated soil building and conserving practices, stated Jas. A. Harvey, Chairman of the Pettis County Agricultural Conservation Association.

The appropriation of government funds is made for the purpose of aiding farmers to carry out practices to conserve and rebuild the fertility of the soil and it is therefore available to any farm owner or operator who contributes to the performing of the practices provided the provisions of the program are carried out.

Assistance For

Assistance is offered Pettis county farmers in the performing of ten different soil building and conserving practices, which include the dirt moving practices of constructing and seeding waterways, standard terraces, diversion terraces, farm drainage ditches and ponds for livestock water; establishing and improving permanent pasture; plowing under a good growth of second year crop sweet clover as green manure; application of fertilizer with a new seeding or old stand of grass or legumes; application of agricultural limestone; and the seeding of sweet clover on adapted soil.

The final date for signing the 1949 Farm Plan in Pettis County is April 1, 1949.

Members of the county committee invite farmers interested in performing any of the ten mentioned practices to call at the county office, 209½ South Ohio, and discuss the program and sign the Farm Plan if they wish. Unless this Plan is signed no allowance will be established and therefore no funds would be available as payment for the farm even though the practices were carried out during the year, explained Mr. Harvey.

Bonds Bought In The County

The United States Treasury Savings Bonds Division for Missouri today released the final report of sales of Series E, F and G bonds in this state during 1948. The report revealed that Missourians purchased a total of $192,853,317 in these securities during the year. Of this total amount, $126,173,246 was in Series "E"—the "people's bond"—and showed a net gain over 1947 of 3.6 per cent.

The report also indicated that citizens of Pettis county purchased a total of $1,313,302 in Savings Bonds during the last year.

R. E. L. Hill, State Chairman, when releasing the report on the State of Missouri and Pettis County, praised the splendid efforts of Mr. Ben Robinson, the county chairman, and his coworkers in the Bond Program. Mr. Hill said: "The fact that the citizens of Pettis county added so materially to their security through the purchase of U. S. Savings Bonds last year is clear evidence of their appreciation for the soundness of a regular savings program, using Government securities for safety and profit."

Club Names Two New Officers

The South Abell Extension Club held the January meeting at the home of Mrs. R. G. Franklin, with Mrs. Charley Hickman as assistant hostess.

A contributive dinner was served at the noon hour to 11 members. The president, Mrs. C. E. Barrick, presided over the meeting. After singing the club song and repeating the club collect, Mrs. R. G. Franklin read the Scripture lesson. Year books were filled out for 1949.

The new officers were appointed, Secretary, Mrs. Erwin; Song leader, Mrs. Raymond Chancy.

The February meeting will meet at the home of Mrs. Charley Meyers, with Mrs. Marion Meyers as assistant hostess.

POP Goes the QUEEN

By Bob Wade and Bill Miller

© by Bob Wade and Bill Miller; Distributed by NEA SERVICE, INC.

"I have to be on the qui vive for any of the Hollywood clan," Thelma Loomis was saying brassily.

"All we did was win a quiz contest," Sin replied. "You have the wrong people."

I

"WELCOME to Azure, sir. And now if you'll please put your John Henry right here . . ." The thin desk man spun the registration card around with undertaker's fingers. Opposite him, he didn't observe that the chin of the stocky young man had eased forward stubbornly as he gripped the pen. The guest wrote, "Mr. and Mrs. John Henry." After a pause for effect, he added "Conover."

"Mr. and Mrs. Conover. San Diego." The desk man did observe this.

"That's right," said John Henry, disappointed. He'd waited years for a setup to his little joke and now it had succeeded like a brick football. "Our reservations were for this noon but we got tied up. I hope it doesn't matter?" His jaw had retreated to its usual conservative position.

Gayner, the assistant manager of the Las Dunas, looked lovingly at the registration card. "Oh, not at all, Mr. Conover. The reservation made by the company was just for Saturday—not specific as to time." He nosed through a register on his side of the desk, then noted a number on the card the young man had filled out. "Your bags, Mr. Conover?"

Gayner wouldn't think of it. Instead, he struck a chime hanging on the stucco wall behind him. A boy in a maroon field marshal uniform emerged from a junior jungle of potted palms.

"Vernon, Mr. Conover's baggage." Gayner flipped him the car keys.

"It's in the first row of your parking lot. '41 Chevy. Green sedan. Tudor," John Henry recounted, pursuing the taciturn bellboy toward the great glass doors in the hotel front.

He watched him make it through to the outdoors and then looked around for St. Clair. She was where he had left her, backed against one of the ornate adobe pillars of the main lobby, nodding her burnished red head engrossedly but wearing a fixed smile as she listened to the woman who held her in conversational captivity. His wife flashed him an appealing look, so John Henry sauntered over to the pair.

• • •

"DARLING!" St. Clair said in a thank-God-you're-here tone. "I was beginning to wonder if we were in the wrong town. You took so long."

"Sorry, Sin," he said and nodded a smile to the other woman. She was past 30 and imperatively blonde.

"I'd like to present my husband—John Henry," Sin said. "This is Mrs.—oh, yes, Loomis."

"Miss Loomis," the blonde corrected heavily, almost manfully. "Thelma Loomis."

"How do you do, Miss Loomis."

"Just investigating your wife, Mr. Conover. I thought I recognized her. I'm with FAN FARE, Campbell Publications." She said it as if that settled that.

Sin explained carefully to John Henry, "That's a movie magazine, darling. Miss Loomis writes for it."

"Well," said Conover, his interest undisturbed.

"Gossip stuff," Thelma Loomis said in a machine-gun voice. "Features on the stars—marriages, divorces, who's chasing who, their views on life, love and the atom bomb." Miss Loomis, it seemed, had made a mistake. "A natural one," she maintained, "considering how attractive your wife—did you call her Sin?—is."

"That's a nickname." Conover abandoned his covert looking for the bellboy and explained for the thousandth time. "Her name is really St. Clair." The British pronunciation made it Sinclair and usage made it Sin. Sin listened proudly, never minding hearing it all over again. The nickname fitted her—even in the simple beige traveling suit mussed by the San Diego-Azure ride.

The thick flow of hair to her shoulders was nearly the color of a cherry coke. The undulating cascade started by her sleek locks didn't stop there; the same curvy theme was reiterated by her slim body right down to her sandaled feet. Sin's face was piquant. Her flesh was a clear and delicate light bronze hue that contrasted disquietingly with slanting green eyes. Her happy mouth kept Sin from being completely sirenish but she still added up to a picture of light-hearted deviltry.

"I HAVE to be on the qui vive for any of the Hollywood clan," Thelma Loomis was saying brassily. The actors and actresses had a habit of slipping away without notifying their Boswells. "So I'm a lobby-haunter."

"You got the wrong people, Miss Loomis. All we did was win a quiz contest."

Miss Loomis looked blank and Sin began telling her all about it. She had been chosen as one of the contestants on the Thursday night Be Bry-Ter Quiz Show in Hollywood. "The jackpot question was to identify a quotation—and I did."

"The darn thing had been building up since Bunker Hill," chuckled John Henry. "So here we are with a free vacation. Rags to riches."

"I can't believe it. I've never heard of anyone winning on the Be Bry-Ter Quiz Show. And I've listened to it for years." She started noting down facts in a little spiral notebook. "Do you use their tooth paste, Mrs. Conover?"

"For a Bry-Ter Smile?" Sin grinned. "I guess it's only right I use the stuff, smile or no smile."

"What was the quotation, by the way?" Thelma Loomis scribbled some things that looked like pidgin shorthand. Sin looked vacant and knitted her heavy eyebrows together in concentration.

"I can't remember," she said plaintively.

John Henry came to his wife's rescue. "She can't remember now. Honest, Miss Loomis. That's the way Sin's memory works."

Baggage clattered on the red-tiled floor behind them. Vernon panted gloomily, "I'll show you to your cottage now."

Sin was ready but the blonde writer was after her. "What does your husband mean about your memory, Mrs. Conover?"

"Oh, it isn't much." The redhead was getting annoyed by the woman's persistence. "A party trick mostly. I remember nearly everything I read, that's all.

John Henry seized her elbow and started his wife toward the glass doors which opened out of the west side of the shallow lobby. He put an end to the conversation with an over-the-shoulder, "But as soon as she's said it aloud—then she forgets it. Sort of like emptying a vacuum cleaner. Glad to have met you, Miss Loomis."

• • •

GAYNER tossed a key attached to a plastic arrowhead across to the diminutive bellboy. "Cottage 15, Vernon," he said in tones as thin as his body. Vernon scowled blackly on general principles and picked up the baggage. The Conovers followed him through the glass doors and down some steps into a grassed and shrubbed sunken patio, crisscrossed with flagstone paths.

Thelma Loomis closed her little notebook and put it back into the pocket of her yellow linen dress. A quick glance across the lobby and her blue eyes sharpened.

And behind his shiny mahogany counter, Gayner gazed after the Conovers until they had wound out of sight along the flagged path that disappeared behind the south wing of the Las Dunas. Only then did he bring his eyes back to his wood and glass cage to stare at the registration card where it lay before him.

Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Conover. San Diego.

He reached out a thin hand and picked up the desk telephone. He spoke politely to the operator "Give me Mr. Barselou, please."

Although wallpaper first was used in the 16th century, it did not receive popular use for another hundred years.

Early settlers in America cut down huge groves of black walnuts and used the wood for fence rails and other farm purposes.

Smelser Club Installation

The Smelser Homemakers Club held its first meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. William Schraeder on January 27, with the installation of officers.

The meeting was called to order by singing the new club song. Roll call was answered with "my favorite magazine."

Minutes were read of the last meeting by Mrs. Clara Leicher and approved by the club.

New officers installed by Mrs. Everett Vannoy, installing officer, were: President, Mrs. William Kraft; vice president, Mrs. Leslie Powell; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Clara Leicher; reporter, Mrs. Floyd Thomason; parliamentarian, Mrs. Matt McMellin; song and game leader, Mrs. Everett Vannoy; parent education, Mrs. Bill May; health, Mrs. Charles Brandhorst; rural youth, Mrs. Clara Leicher; reading, Mrs. William Brandhorst; clothing, Mrs. William Schrader; foods, Mrs. Floyd Thomason; home management, Mrs. Bill May; poultry, Mrs. L. B. Holmes; home grounds, Mrs. Floyd Thomason.

Mrs. Charles Callis gave a report on the council meeting. A vote was made to give cash to the March of Dimes cancer fund and Red Cross. A vote by members was put on record against unapproved comic books, social drinking in movies, horror stories on radios.

Refreshments were served and the group adjourned to meet with Mrs. Charles Callis this month.

All-Time High By Newspapers

NEW YORK, Feb. 5—(AP)—Editor and Publisher Magazine says daily and Sunday newspaper circulation hit another all-time high in 1948 for the eight consecutive year.

These figures released Thursday will appear in the Editor and Publisher 1949 international year book number scheduled for release later this month:

Circulations totalled 52,285,290 daily and 46,308,081 Sunday at the end of 1948. This represented a gain over 1947 figures of 1.2 per cent for daily circulations and 2.7 per cent for Sundays.

The total number of daily papers in the United States has shown a net increase for the fifth consecutive year.

There were 12 more dailies as of Dec. 31, 1948, than there were at the same time in 1947. This bring the total of 1,781, making a gain of 37 dailies over the low mark in 1944.

High Point Club Meeting

The High Point Homemakers Club met at the home of Mrs. L. C. Green, with Mrs. Ross Stephens as assisting hostess.

The meeting was opened by singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" and Mrs. Dick Jenkins reading the club collect.

Roll Call was answered by telling "how I intend to improve my home and yard this spring."

The health letter was read by Mrs. Roy Fender. A discussion was held on comic books in the home.

There were two visitors, Mrs. A. C. Staffel and Mrs. C. L. Wodleigh. Mrs. Staffel joined the club.

Each member is asked to bring a suggestion for roll call at the March meeting.

The Club adjourned to meet at the home of Mrs. B. G. Smith, March 2.

Decorative treatment of walls began with the fresco in ancient Egypt.

The first wallpapers, in the 16th century, were derived from booklinings and probably were in domino or checkered designs.

IN-A-TOP BROILER

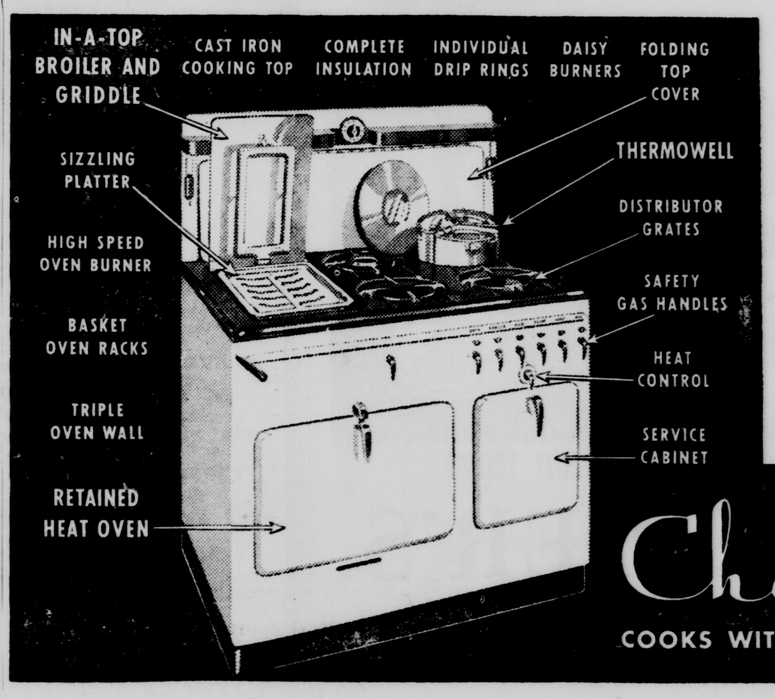

• No Stooping • Very Fast • Smokeless • Separate Burner • Sizzling Platter

IN-A-TOP BROILER offers the last word in domestic broiling. It is actually smokeless because it is a separate unit designed for broiling. No need to cut off the good fat that nature put around fine steaks. No need to put water in the broiling pan, thereby diluting the drippings. No need to move the steak down so far from the flame that it bakes rather than broils. No need for shifting hot broiler racks. With this smokeless, speedy unit, exclusive with Chambers, you can enjoy the finest sizzling" steaks, chops, fish — in your own home. Serve them on the Sizzling Platter—the broiling pan. A big Griddle forms the Broiler top. Remember, too, that—

Cooking School Menues

The following recipes are included in the Fourth Session of the "Food Festival School of Cookery."

Lamb Curry With Noodles

3 pounds lamb breast
2 tablespoon lard or drippings
½ cup chopped onion
¼ cup flour
2 cups water
1½ teaspoons salt
1 teaspoon curry powder
1 cup chopped apple
¼ cup chopped celery
1 teaspoon Worchestershire sauce
1 tablespoon salt
2 quarts boiling water
8 ounces broad noodles

Cut lamb breast into riblets. Brown in hot lard or drippings. Add onion and cook 5 minutes. Add flour, stirring until smooth. Gradually add 2 cups water, stirring until thick. Add salt, curry powder, apple, celery and Worchestershire sauce. Cover and simmer 1½ to 2 hours. Add 1 tablespoon salt to actively boiling water. Gradually add noodles and cook until tender, about 10 minutes. Drain and rinse with hot water. Serve curried lamb over noodles. 6 servings.

Standing Rib of Beef

Select a 2 or 3-rib roast. Have chine bone loosened. Season with salt and pepper. Insert a meat thermometer so bulb reaches center of thickest part, and does not rest in fat or on bone. Place, fat side up, on rack in open roasting pan. Do not add water. Do not cover. Roast in slow oven (300° F.) to desired degree of doneness. Allow 18 to 20 minutes per pound for cooking a rare roast, 22 to 25 minutes per pound for medium, and 27 to 30 minutes per pound for a well done roast. 6 to 8 servings.

Luncheon Meat Loaf

2 pounds ground beef
2 tablespoons finely chopped salt pork
¼ cup finely chopped onion
⅓ cup quick-cooking tapioca
2 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 cup canned tomatoes

Fry salt pork until it begins to brown. Add chopped onion and cook until golden brown. Add to remaining ingredients and mix thoroughly. Mold in 5x9-inch loaf pan. Unmold on rack in shallow roasting pan. Bake in slow oven (300° F.) for 1½ hours, basting with Glaze every ½ hour. 8 servings.

Glaze

¾ cup brown sugar
2 teaspoons dry mustard
2 tablespoons vinegar
2 tablespoons water

Mix all ingredients and bring to a boil.

Mock Souffle

½ pound left-over meat
1 slices bread
½ pound sliced American cheese
2 cups milk
3 eggs
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon paprika

Grind meat. Remove crusts from bread and place 3 slices in bottom of 8-inch casserole. Add layer of cheese, and then sprinkle one-third ground meat over cheese. Repeat this procedure 2 more times. Beat eggs with milk, salt, pepper and one-half teaspoon paprika. Pour egg mixture over ingredients in casserole and let stand in refrigerator at least 1 hour. Sprinkle one-half teaspoon paprika over top of casserole. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) for 50 minutes. 8 servings.

Broiled Franks

6 frankfurters
12 slices bacon
¼ pound American cheese

Cut frankfurters in half and slit lengthwise. Cut cheese in pieces 2x¼x¼-inches and place one piece in each slit frankfurter half. Wrap each with slice of bacon and place on broiler rack. Insert broiler pan, allowing 2 inches between heat and top of meat. Broil until bacon is crisp. 6 servings.

Hawaiian Pork

1 pound boneless lean pork, cut in 1-inch cubes.
1 egg
2 tablespoons flour
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
3 tablespoons lard or drippings
3 green peppers
½ cup pineapple chunks
2½ tablespoons cornstarch
2½ tablespoons soy sauce
¼ cup sugar
¼ cup vinegar
½ cup pineapple juice
Chinese noodles or cooked rice

Beat together egg, flour, salt and pepper. Thoroughly coat cubes of pork in egg-flour batter. Brown on all sides in hot lard or drippings in frying pan. Cover and cook slowly for 30 minutes. Remove stems and seeds from green peppers. Cut into 1-inch squares. Boil 10 minutes. Drain. Add green peppers and pineapple to meat. Cover and simmer 10 minutes. Combine cornstarch, soy sauce, sugar, vinegar and pineapple juice and cook 2 minutes or until clear. Pour over meat mixture and simmer 5 minutes. Serve over Chinese noodles or cooked rice. 4 servings.

White Cake Supreme

3 cups cake flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
3 egg whites
½ cup lard
1½ cups sugar
1¼ cups milk
1 egg yolk
1 teaspoon vanilla
½ teaspoon almond extract
1 package prepared chocolate pudding
1¾ cups milk
2 squares chocolate

Line bottom of three 8-inch cake pans with waxed paper. Sift flour with baking powder and salt. Cream lard. Continue creaming gradually adding 1 cup sugar and 3 tablespoons milk. Add egg yolk and vanilla to remaining milk. Add sifted dry ingredients alternately with the milk mixture. Beat egg whites stiff but not dry, beating in the remaining sugar as for meringue. Fold into cake batter. Bake 25 minutes in moderate oven (375° F.). Invert pans on cake racks. After slight cooling, turn out cakes. Add milk to pudding mix and cook. Cool. Use prepared chocolate pudding to make filling for layers and frost with Fluffy Frosting. Melt chocolate and pour irregularly over icing. 12 to 16 servings.

Fluffy Frosting

1½ cups sugar
1 tablespoon white corn sirup
5 tablespoons water
2 egg whites
1 teaspoon vanilla

Combine all ingredients in top of double boiler and mix. Beat 3 minutes over boiling water. Remove from fire but leave over boiling water and beat 7 minutes longer.

Hal Boyle Says

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK, Feb. 5—(AP)—It was Mrs. Trellis Mae Peeble's turn to lead the weekly current events discussion at her club—the Crochet and Croquet society.

"What's your topic?" asked her husband, Wilbur.

"More Husbands for Married Ladies," she said brightly. "Don't you think it's a wonderful topic?"

"I don't get it," said Wilbur. "And I have a feeling right now I never will."

"I don't see why you say that," complained Trellis Mae. "It's very simple. I got the idea out of the newspaper. It says there's a lady schoolteacher in Germany who found there were 7,000,000 extra German men.

"So she thinks German wives should be allowed more than one husband. It would keep the poor men from becoming lonely old bachelors. I am going to bring her idea up before our club members for discussion."

Like Checking Books

"You mean wives would check out husbands like they do books from the circulating libraries?" asked Wilbur.

"Something like that, I suppose," said Trellis Mae placidly. "A wife could have a nice husband to keep around the house—like you, Wilbur. She could have another one—a richer husband—to pay the bills. And maybe a third one to take her dancing in the evening."

"There is something screwball about all this," said her husband. "Give me that newspaper."

Wilbur read the article carefully. And a smug leer spread his face.

"Why you've got the thing backwards," he laughed. "There are 7,000,000 extra women, not men, in Germany. What this schoolteacher means is that men ought to be allowed to marry more than one woman. It's really a share-the-husband program, so there won't be any old maids."

Something Different

"The very idea!" gasped Trellis Mae. "That's immoral."

"Well, it's only vice versa from what you thought," grinned Wilbur. "By golly, that schoolteacher may have something.

"Let's see. I could check out a brunette to cook my breakfast, a blonde to take to a night club, and a redhead to—."

"Oh, Wilbur!" wailed Trellis Mae. "You talk like a horrid old sultan. You wouldn't want any other wife but me, would you?"

Wilbur saw that her hot and cold running tear faucets were about to open.

"No, dear," he said hastily. "I'll stick by what my dad always told my mother: 'I wouldn't take a million dollars for you, and I wouldn't give a penny for another just like you.'"

"I suppose," said Trellis Mae, "that in your family that was intended as a compliment."

All Alike

"I suppose," replied her husband, "it is in every family."

Trellis Mae smiled and came over and sat in her husband's lap. She kissed him.

"I guess I had better pick another current events topic," she said. "That other one is too silly for words. It doesn't even make sense."

"Why don't you talk about Joe Stalin, the man in the Kremlin?" suggested Wilbur.

"What's he doing there? asked Trellis. "Won't they let him out?"

Wilbur sighed and reached toward her notebook and newspapers. It looked like a long evening.

Four for One

It is said that four milk bottles are used for every person who takes a bottle of milk daily. While one is being delivered, a second awaits the next delivery, a third is being washed, and a fourth is kept in reserve.

Respiring Hill

In Castlemaine, Australia, there is a hill that not only breathes, but snores, as air rushes in and out of an abandoned mine below the surface, causing the hill to rise and fall.

LISTEN! by Jim Carson

A special program Mind in the Shadow will be presented on KMBC at 10 o'clock this morning. This full-hour documentary is devoted to an exploration of the problem of mental illness in America. The program stars Eddie Albert, as a young man too frightened to face the question of mental illness. The script is by Arnold Perl, and is the result of months of intensive research and interviews. This is truly an outstanding program, one you shouldn't miss!

That quipping quiz-master Bob Hawk, will present what he considers to be the most interesting question ever asked on the series, on The Bob Hawk Show on KMBC at 8 p. m. Tuesday evening. Be sure to tune in this delightful half-hour to hear this question that has been in the process of research for a full year.

In answer to numerous requests, here's a picture of Tim West, the genial chief big brother of KMBC's Big Brother Club, heard at 5:15 p. m. on KMBC, Monday through Friday. Tim and chief-finder-outer Lee Stewart are favorites with the youngsters, but we find that high school students and adults also are faithful followers of the program. Tim and Lee present an unusual program of facts and information in a free and easy manner that's fun to hear.

Tim West

Lee Stewart

The First Nighter program, now heard on KMBC at 9 p. m. each Sunday evening, has an unusual situation develop on tonight's romantic drama. It is entitled "Things for Sticky Bill to Do," and involves a hard-boiled bank executive and a pretty girl who works in the same bank. Barbara Luddy and Olan Soule are the stars of the First Nighter series.

"Captain from Castile" will be the Radio Theatre presentation at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening on KMBC. Film stars Cornel Wilde and Jean Peters will be featured in the leading roles. It's an exciting story built around Cortez and the invasion of Mexico, and we know you'll enjoy this full-hour dramatic program.

All you folks who know KMBC The Texas Rangers will be glad to learn that they are starring on their own network show on CBS each Saturday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. Yes, sir, all of the gang, so familiar to midwest audiences, are on the network coast-to-coast each Saturday afternoon, and can be heard on KMBC at 3 o'clock. So, tune in for 30 minutes of enjoyment.

And, by the way, we'd like to call your attention to early Saturday afternoon programs on KMBC. At 1 o'clock there's Stars Over Hollywood, followed at 1:30 by that entertaining Give and Take program. At 2 p. m. there's Handy Man, and at 2:15, How to Get More Out of Life. Cross Section, U.S.A. is the 2:30 feature, and The Texas Rangers at 3 p. m.

With this partial listing of highlight programs, it's easy to see why KMBC is first in radio in the Heart of America.

Hearty Beef Pie is Ideal For Entertaining

A new note in entertaining is to serve a few simple, hearty foods, and in liberal quantity. One of the best examples of this especially for a real he-man buffet, is a good, filling beef pie. This is the kind of food men go for, so maybe you could plan it for your next club meeting, or if you're planning to entertain some of your husband's or brother's friends on his birthday. They'll remember this kind of food much longer than your dainty sandwich loaves or gelatin salads.

Top the beef pie with lots of crusty biscuits — at least one apiece — and then have plenty more besides, if you want to make a really big hit. Gooseberry jam goes well with biscuits and nothing is too good for this affair. If you have some lap trays for your guests to eat from, you'll eliminate the "balancing" act so abhorred by men. Even better are tables for guests to go to after they have helped themselves at the buffet table.

Easy on the Budget

To make the beef pie for six, ask your meat dealer for 1½ pounds of beef for stew—this party is definitely not going to dent your budget! Flour the meat thoroughly, then brown in hot fat in a heavy frying pan. Add seasonings and water to cover. Cover and cook until tender, usually about 1½ to 2 hours. Near the end of the cooking time add vegetables so they will be just tender.

So far you have made favorite beef stew. Now pour the stew into an oven dish or casserole—something that can be served at the table as well as used to cook the pie. If you're having a large crowd, you may wish to double the recipe and make the pie in a rectangular baking dish. Top the beef stew with biscuits, then bake in a hot oven until brown and there is your party beef pie, already to go!

Beef Pie

3 to 4 tablespoons lard or drippings.
1½ teaspoons salt.
¼ teaspoon pepper.
1½ cups water.
1 pound fresh or 1 No. 2 can green beans.
6 medium carrots, sliced.
4 medium onions, quartered.
Flour for thickening.
Baking Powder biscuits.

Brown meat on all sides in lard or drippings. Season. Add water. Cover and simmer 1½ to 2 hours or until tender. About 30 minutes before end of cooking time add fresh green beans, carrots, onions and potatoes. (If canned beans are used, they may be added 10 minutes before end of cooking time.) Place the cooked meat and vegetables in a baking dish or an over-proof casserole. If needed, add water to cooking liquid to make enough liquid for gravy. Thicken liquid with flour. Pour over meat and vegetables. Place baking powder biscuits on top. Bake in a hot oven (425 degrees F.) 12 to 15 minutes. 6 servings.

For a He-Man Buffet

Suggestive of a real he-man buffet is this hearty beef pie with its accompanying mixed vegetable salad. Your guests will really "dig in" to a dish like this—and remember you forever after for it, too! Have plenty of additional biscuits ready to fill the demand.

HOME HINTS:
(A HEART-TO-HEART TALK WITH "DOC BOB" YOUR CLEANER)

DOC BOB

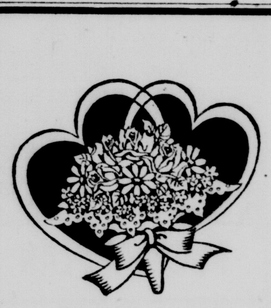

If You Must Press Silks and Rayons At Home . . . use an electric iron with a temperature control for silk and rayon. Pure silk, (which you never see) can be pressed at a high temperature. Rayons and celanese MUST be pressed at an extremely low heat. If your iron is set for wool - silk or cotton . . . the temperature is high enough to melt rayons and celanese. Ever notice your iron stick? If iron is too hot . . . the rayon fibers melt and run together, causing a hard spot, which can never be remedied in the least . . . what looks like shine to you on a hem or seam is the result also and cannot be removed. Remember . . . press on the wrong side . . . medium hot iron . . . do not dampen. But just remember also, that we are in business to worry about your pressing for you.
